TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS OWNERSHIP ADMINISTRATION

Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 22nd year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer, who oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club, has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League and has become a leader in the Bay Area, recognized for his tremendous community work.

The Buccaneers have posted 154 regular season wins and five playoff wins with seven playoff appearances under Glazer's leadership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to Glazer family ownership and included advancement to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995. Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

Glazer's dedication to the Bay Area was also highlighted by his leadership in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted both Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay Area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. Glazer is committed to continuing to bring future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

In addition to his business achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly associated to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including, but not limited to, the team's first Super Bowl championship.

A native of Rochester, New York, Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which was honored as Foundation of the Year by the Tampa Bay Sports Commission in 2011.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened in Tampa in 2010, in large part due to the Foundation's gift of $5 million. In addition to serving on the museum's Board of Directors, Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors, The Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House, the advisory board for the Outback Bowl, and, in the spring of 2011, he served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

Glazer's efforts to remain connected and active in the Bay Area community continued in 2015 with his $4 million dollar gift to jump start the development of a new state-of-the-art Jewish Community Center that is scheduled to open in West Tampa this year. The facility will be named the Bryan Glazer Family JCC and will serve an important role in the revitalization of the surrounding area, providing a place for families and community to come together.

In the spring of 2016, Glazer was honored with induction into the Tampa Bay Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his business achievements and community leadership in and around the Tampa Bay region.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife Shanna.

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's business acumen. These attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 22nd season with the Buccaneers, Co-Chairman Joel Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

The family's leadership and dedication to the team is evidenced by the Buccaneers' seven playoff berths and first-ever Super Bowl Championship - all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Co-Chairman, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a contender, but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed their first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005 and 2007.

Glazer, promising a world-class facility, led the design development for the club's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art team headquarters which opened to rave reviews in August 2006. Located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium, One Buccaneer Place is one of the finest training facilities in the National Football League. The signature of the site is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall.

After the family's acquisition of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since assuming his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have recorded 154 regular-season wins and five playoff wins. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' have seen seven playoff appearances since 1997. Prior to the Glazers' arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Since his arrival in Tampa, Glazer has directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office and recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, he worked tirelessly alongside his brother, Bryan, to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. The Glazers set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drew from their experiences as fans, and ultimately shaped every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." The signature element — Buccaneer Cove — features a 103-foot replica pirate ship that fires cannons to celebrate Buccaneers touchdowns. Upon its opening, Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, and it continues to provide an exciting, innovative gameday experience to this day.

With the support of Glazer and his brothers, the Buccaneers reached an agreement in the fall of 2015 with the Tampa Sports Authority that will result in a comprehensive renovation of Raymond James Stadium. The multi-stage renovation plan is expected to exceed $140 million and will be completed in two phases. The first stage is scheduled to be completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and is highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area of 28,416 feet — the third-largest in the NFL. Also included will be a new, comprehensive sound system and the renovation of all luxury suites. The project helps to ensure that Raymond James Stadium remains one of the top stadium destinations in the NFL.

Throughout the construction of Raymond James Stadium, Glazer created the sales and marketing efforts that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate Pewter Partners sponsorship program, Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

In March of 2014, the Glazers unveiled exciting changes to the franchise, introducing an updated logo, color scheme and uniform design, which were the result of several years of development and collaboration with Nike and NFL Properties. The enhanced logo — which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design - honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. Along with chrome facemasks on the helmet, the new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts. The team's colors were also energized with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

Glazer represents the team at all NFL Owners Meetings, addressing the media with a "state of the franchise" address. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay Area won the bid for Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to helping children in the Bay area through charity initiatives. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum, the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened in 2010 and was recently named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011. In addition to his community efforts, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International, NFL Finance and NFL Stadium committees.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company, The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013) as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by The Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

Entering his 22nd season with Tampa Bay in 2016, Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fan base. In recent years, Glazer has overseen a complete overhaul of the team's marketing and sales departments, including the launch of a new Member Relations Department created exclusively for Buccaneers Season Pass Members. The department, which offers an array of off-the-field benefits and unparalleled customer service, has been a huge success as JD Powers ranked the Buccaneers No. 1 in customer satisfaction among all NFL teams for three out of the past four seasons.

Glazer scrutinizes every detail of the business operations at One Buccaneer Place to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneers experience and value. In an effort to make season pass membership even more accessible to fans, Glazer introduced the NFL's first 12-month interest-free payment plan.

With a focus on continually improving the gameday experience for Buccaneers fans, Glazer was instrumental in the renovation of Raymond James Stadium. The renovation is expected to exceed $140 million and will be completed in two phases. The first stage will be completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and is highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone, all new ribbon boards and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl. Starting this season, Raymond James Stadium's nearly 29,000 square feet of video display space will rank third largest among NFL venues. Also included will be the new surround sound system, a complete renovation of all luxury suites and the introduction of the exclusive all new, all-inclusive Hall of Fame Club.

Glazer worked closely with Nike and the NFL to create a bold, new look for the team's new uniforms that were unveiled prior to the 2014 season. The enhanced logo — which features an enlarged flag and more menacing skull design – honors the Buccaneers' rich tradition while boldly bringing the team into the future through a modern industrial aesthetic. The new uniform features a bold look with custom name and number fonts as well as the first chrome facemasks on an NFL helmet. The team also energized its color scheme with a richer shade of pewter juxtaposed with a brighter, more vibrant shade of red, as well as more prominently featuring "Bay Orange" as a primary trim and accent color.

The Glazer family has been devoted to building a winning team from their earliest days as owners. Under the Glazers, Tampa Bay has enjoyed its most successful stretch as a franchise, posting seven playoff appearances with four division championships in addition to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII, a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in San Diego on January 26, 2003.

With another Super Bowl victory as the ultimate goal, the Glazers have made bold, educated moves to assemble a winning franchise. In 2014, Glazer and his siblings hired General Manager Jason Licht and in 2016 they promoted offensive coordinator Dirk Koetter to head coach. The Buccaneers have drafted key pieces of the future while extending contracts for homegrown talent and securing important free agents. In 2015, the team's draft produced an astonishing four rookies who made immediate impacts as starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, offensive linemen Donovan Smith and Ali Marpet, and linebacker Kwon Alexander. The team has also extended contracts for defensive tackle Gerald McCoy (2014), linebacker Lavonte David (2015) and running back Doug Martin (2016), ensuring that the vital core of the team's foundation for future success stavs intact.

In 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazers in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay Area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

In 2010, The Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa to rave reviews, earning recognition by Women's Day Magazine as one of the Top 10 family museums in the country. For its wide-reaching efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree in 2011.

Away from the football field, Glazer is also heavily involved in charitable endeavors. He is Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation and helps oversee Foundation programs that provide incredible opportunities to Bay Area residents. The Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are committed to providing aid and assistance in the community, supporting many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, Cedars-Sinai Hospital, and the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital where the Ed and Shari Glazer unveiled the "B.F.F Bear Program" which gives free teddy bears to pediatric patients.

In addition to his duties with the Buccaneers, Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club — the world's most popular team with over 660 million fans worldwide. Under the Glazers' ownership, the club has won the Premier League title in five of the last 10 seasons and has also played in three Champions League final matches, winning the 2008 Champions League title. In 2016, Manchester United took home the FA Cup. Glazer is also Co-Chairman of First Allied Corporation and Owner and C.E.O. of US Property Trust.

A proud Ithaca College alumnus, Glazer recently opened the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena on the school's campus. Glazer and his wife Shari have three daughters.

Darcie Glazer Kassewitz. Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation, has worked tirelessly during her family's ownership of the team to ensure that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' value to the community extends well beyond the playing field. Kassewitz has been the driving force behind the Buccaneers and the Foundation's forward-thinking community outreach efforts and ensures that the core mission of making a difference in the lives of Tampa Bay area residents is carried out.

Established in 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes focusing on children and families in the West Central Florida region. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars in support of this cause.

In August of 2015, Kassewitz introduced the Women of RED – an innovative fan engagement program focused on enhancing and improving the fan experience. In its highly-anticipated debut season, Women of RED was called "the tipping point for a genuine connection to fans", attracting thousands of women to major events that offered a wide variety of interactive experiences, exclusive behind-the-scenes access, and the opportunity to interact with former Buccaneers legends and current executives.

Through a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation is proud to have brought the world-class Glazer Children's Museum to Tampa as part of its ongoing dedication to children and families. A new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders, the Children's Museum opened on September 25th, 2010. This one-ofa-kind museum instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53.000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

A commitment to education plays a central role to the Glazer Family Foundation's core mission and in the fall of 2013, Kassewitz launched the Buccaneers Academies. Serving over 14,000 youth and 2,000 teachers in Hillsborough County, these 24 schools are provided with support from Buccaneers players, cheerleaders and staff including incentive-based programs and monthly challenges that offer engaging, and motivating opportunities to learn. Each Buccaneers Academy also receives a Buccaneers-themed Fitness Zone with a covered court to promote active and safe outdoor play. Additionally, upon completion of fifth grade, every Buccaneers Academies graduating student receives a Ticket to the Future, the commitment from the Buccaneers to grant students a job interview upon their graduation from college.

Kassewitz has also been the driving force behind the Glazer Family Foundation's highly successful Vision Program, founded in 2006 to provide schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified in school at an early age. To date, the Foundation has donated vision screening equipment to eight counties in West Central Florida. The Vision Mobile, a fun, interactive mobile eye clinic spearheaded by Kassewitz in 2009, provides the final step in vision services to correct students' inability to see clearly by providing free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title One schools. Since 2009, the Vision Mobile has conducted more than 65,000 eye screenings, performed 11,000 eye exams and provided more than 9,000 pairs of eye glasses to disadvantaged children. In October of 2015, Kassewitz and Pro Bowl defensive tackle Gerald McCoy unveiled a brand new Buccaneers-themed Vision Mobile, a customized RV that includes a rebranded exterior with engaging, interactive, kid-friendly features.

As part of the Buccaneers' support of Breast Cancer awareness, Kassewitz hosts the annual Treasure Chests 5K Run/Walk & Corporate Challenge, which has evolved into one of the premier events of its kind in the Tampa Bay region. The Buccaneers welcomed more than 4,300 participants to the most recent race, and since 2013, has topped $100,000 in donations towards breast cancer awareness and patient services benefitting the American Cancer Society, Florida Cancer Specialists Foundation, the Florida Hospital Foundation and Moffitt Cancer Center.

To start every home Tampa Bay Buccaneers game, Kassewitz meets with children from local community groups on the field prior to kickoff as part of the Foundation's Gameday For Kids program. To date, the Foundation has hosted more than 16,000 youth from organizations throughout the Bay area at Raymond James Stadium. Participating students are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with complimentary game tickets, food vouchers and battle flags.

On the football side, Kassewitz has used her creative expertise to help shape the Buccaneers' world-class facilities. Kassewitz set out to design a football stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. She ultimately shaped every detail of the interior of Raymond James Stadium, including the design of the expansive club levels, luxury suites and the Lower Galley restaurant. A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL."

Tampa Bay's training facility, which opened to high praise from across the National Football League in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. Kassewitz oversaw the entire interior design process for the team's 136.320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which encompasses the daily functions for all of the Buccaneers' football and business operations.

One of the signatures of the training facility is the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Museum, which was designed and produced by Kassewitz. The museum brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo, a description of Buccaneers head coaches since the team's inception in 1976, and the organization's move to Raymond James Stadium and One Buccaneer Place. Additional exhibits explain the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation, and the continual efforts by Buccaneers players to make an impact in the community. Included are features dedicated to the Buccaneers' Super Bowl victory, including special exhibits showcasing the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring earned in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The lobby also includes the spectacular Moment of Victory sculpture exhibit, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXVII. Kassewitz not only came up with the concept for the sculptures, but oversaw the design and creation of this one-of-a-kind exhibit.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kassewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club; five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kassewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association. Kassewitz and her husband, Joel, reside in Tampa.

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary. rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's longstruggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears — and have them work with maximum efficiency - went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks, Brooks was one of many longtime Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say — and I'm glad — that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a firstround draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

> Despite the team's decadeand-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline. but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife. Linda. in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

Brian A. Ford, Jr. joined the Buccaneers in 2006 and in his role oversees all aspects of the organization's dayto-day business operations and community involvement. He works directly with team ownership to ensure that Buccaneers fans, season pass members and corporate sponsors receive a first in class experience. Under Ford's leadership, the Buccaneers have consistently earned top ratings among NFL teams for consumer satisfaction by a leading market research firm.

Ford is currently overseeing a comprehensive renovation of Raymond James Stadium that is expected to exceed $140 million. The first stage of this multi-year project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase is scheduled to be completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and is highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area of 28,416 feed – the third-largest in the NFL. Also included will be a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations – completed in time for the team's 2017 season – will include extensive overhauls of the east and west club lounges, expansions of the general concourses, construction of a team store and other general enhancements.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

An active participant in and around the Tampa Bay area, Ford served as an executive committee member for the Super Bowl Host Committee for Super bowl XLIII in 2009 and currently serves on the boards of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay, American Cancer Society CEOs Against Cancer, Sports Advisory Council for Special Olympics Florida, Saint Leo University Sport Business Advisory Council, and Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Foundation. Ford has also been a driving force and annual participant in the team's annual Cut for a Cure event that has raised over $110,000 for the National Pediatric Cancer Foundation over the past four years. In addition, Ford recently became a member of the Honorary Commander 927th Air Refueling Wing, which allows business men and women from the local community an opportunity for an up close and personal experience of the policies, programs and overall mission capability of the United States Air Force.

Ford, a native of Miramar, Florida, graduated from Florida State in 1989 with a B.S. in business administration. He is an avid runner and triathlete and competes in numerous events each year, including a marathon each of the past 12 years as well as several 70.3 Half Ironman events over this same time period.

He and his wife, Judy, live in Tampa, and have two sons, Brian III and Brandon. The couple is celebrating their 27th wedding anniversary this coming August. Judy is an active member of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which hosts charitable functions and community service projects in Tampa Bay throughout the year. Oldest son Brian III is a junior at Florida State University while Brandon, a recent high school graduate, will join him this upcoming fall as a freshman at their parents' alma mater.

BUCCANEERS IN THE COMMUNIT

BUCS CARE MISSION:

BE CHAMPIONS FOR OUR COMMUNITY

We are dedicated to making a difference in the Tampa Bay area through programming that will inspire, equip and celebrate the "Champion" in each of us.

INSPIRE

Motivate and encourage each other to push beyond our limits and reach new heights.

BUCCANEERS ACADEMY

The Buccaneers Academy Program is an unyielding commitment to Tampa Bay area youth that furthers the mission of the Glazer family to better the lives of children and families within the Central Florida community. Innovative and interactive classroom programming supplied by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers offers year-round support to 24 Hillsborough County Public Schools. In turn, Buccaneers Academies impact more than 14,000 students and 2,100 teachers.

GLAZER CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

With an average of 200.000 visitors a year, the Glazer Children's Museum's goal is to create a casual environment created specifically for the cultivation of learning for young children. The institution provides exhibits designed for kids to have long-lasting hands-on experiences while opening their minds to the possibilities of their future. A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs, and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers a rich and ever-changing environment for playful learning. For more information about the Glazer Children's Museum, visit www.glazermuseum.org.

EQUIP

Provide skills, knowledge and other resources to create access to brighter futures for our community through targeted programming.

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION VISION MOBILE

Started as a personal passion to improve the lives of children who struggled in school due to lack of proper vision, the Glazer Foundation Vision Mobile is an interactive mobile eye clinic for children and visits more than 60 Title I elementary schools in Hillsborough and Pinellas counties each year. Since the program's inception in 2009, it has screened more than 65,000 children, conducted a remarkable 11,000 eye exams and given out over 9,000 pairs of glasses free of charge and has been recognized by the Hillsborough County Public School Board. But more than the tangible impact of the program, the true value of the Vision Mobile lies in its ability to alter the lives of Tampa Bay youth by opening their eyes to learning.

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

Since 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation has been committed to supporting Bay Area amateur youth athletics. Through a significant annual donation to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, the Glazer family seeks to inspire future generations of youth athletes. Since inception, the Glazer Family Foundation has donated over $1,000,000 to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission. For more information about the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, visit www.tampabaysports.org.

CELEBRATE

Honor and recognize the outstanding achievements of our neighbors in the Tampa Bay Area.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

Every year, as a part of the NFL-wide Salute to Service initiative, a regular-season game is dedicated to honoring the service of military men and women. In addition to players wearing camouflage accents with their uniform, in-game features have included an Air Force flyover, a military coin toss captain and military organizations performing the National Anthem prior to game start. As an expansion to the NFL's program, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers proudly support military men and women within the Tampa Bay community throughout the season. During every home game, together with the USO Central Florida, the Buccaneers celebrate a Hero of the Game, as well as invite servicemen and servicewomen to watch the game from our exclusive Tampa Bay Buccaneers Salute to Service Suite.

TREASURE CHEST 5K

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers are proud to raise awareness in the fight against breast cancer. Through efforts such as the Treasure Chests 5K, the Bucs contribute thousands of dollars each year to support research and patient services in the Bay area. The Buccaneers began hosting the Treasure Chests 5K Run/Walk & Corporate Challenge in 2013. Each year, thousands of runners take to the streets around Raymond James Stadium to raise money and awareness in the fight against breast cancer. Since its inception, the race has raised more than $100,000, with proceeds going to the American Cancer Society, the Florida Cancer Specialists Foundation, the Florida Hospital Foundation and the Moffitt Cancer Center. For more information and to support the cause, visit www.buccaneers.com/treasurechests5k.

General Manager Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014. Licht (pronounced LIGHT) owns two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with five organizations. In 20 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 172-148 (.546) record, nine playoff appearances, eight division championships, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

In 2015, Licht oversaw one of the most important selections in Buccaneers franchise history, as the team held the No. 1 overall pick for the first time since 1987. With that top overall pick, Licht selected quarterback Jameis Winston, who went on to establish team rookie records in nearly every passing category, including pass attempts (535), pass completions (312), passing yards (4,042), passing touchdowns (22) and passer rating (84.2). Winston was voted Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and earned a trip to the 2016 Pro Bowl, to go along with a selection to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

But Winston was just the beginning of what shaped up to be one of the best drafts in team history, as the team spent second round selections on tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall) and guard Ali Marpet (61st overall), as well as a fourth round pick on linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall). All three players were starters from Game 1 and each of them earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston.

Marpet (13 starts) and Smith (16 starts) were key members of the Buccaneers offensive line that blocked for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin -1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks allowed in the league, after ranking 29th in rushing and 29th in sacks allowed in the previous season.

Alexander started 12 games, totaling 93 tackles, six tackles for loss, nine passes defensed, 3.0 sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. His 93 tackles ranked second on the team and were the third-most by a rookie this season, while his nine passes defensed were tied for the third-most by a linebacker in the NFL. He was one of three players in the league to post at least 90 tackles, five passes defensed, 3.0 sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery (also Lavonte David & Thomas Davis).

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel, working under general manager Steve Keim, who has earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from both Pro Football Talk and Sporting News. Licht's first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and Sl.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside seven head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Pete Carroll, Lovie Smith, Ken Whisenhunt) and seven who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Dom Capers, Bruce Arians and Lovie Smith).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

Licht first worked with the Cardinals as a personnel executive in 2008 when Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. He then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the three-time Super Bowl champions, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

Dirk Koetter was named the 11th head coach in franchise history on January 15, 2016. He is in his second season with the team, after serving as offensive coordinator in 2015.

In his first season with Tampa Bay (2015), Koetter helped pilot one of the most successful offenses in the NFL and one of the best in team history. The team set the franchise record for total yards (6,014-357.0 per game), while posting the second-most rushing yards (2,162-135.1 per game) and second-most passing yards (3,852-240.8 per game), along with the fifth-most total points (342-21.4 per game). Tampa Bay ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (375.9), fifth in rushing yards per game (135.1) and second in the league in rush average (4.75). It marked the first time in franchise history that the Buccaneers have finished in the Top five in total offense.

Much of Tampa Bay's offensive success in 2015 came at the hands of rookie quarterback Jameis Winston, who accounted for 28 total touchdowns (22 passing, six rushing). Koetter also helped guide Winston to 4,042 passing yards, which were the second-most in a single season in team history and the third-most by a rookie in NFL history. Winston's 22 passing touchdowns were tied for the fourth-most in a single season in team history and the fourth-most by a rookie in NFL history. His six rushing touchdowns and 28 combined touchdowns were the most in a single season by a Buccaneers quarterback, while his 28 total touchdowns were tied for the third-most by a rookie in NFL history.

Prior to Koetter's arrival, the Buccaneers ranked 29th in rushing and tied for 29th in sacks allowed in 2014. This past season, under Koetter's guidance, the unit completed an impressive turnaround. Despite starting two rookies on the offensive line, Tampa Bay still managed to block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin -1,402 yards) and tied for the fourth-fewest sacks in the league. While Martin was a large part of the team's success running the ball, he was aided by running back Charles Sims, who totaled 1,090 scrimmage yards (107 rushes for 529 yards, 51 catches for 561 yards). Sims averaged 6.9 yards per touch, the most by any player in the NFL with at least 150 touches since 2011 (Darren Sproles in 2011, 7.6 avg.). Martin and Sims' combined 2,566 yards from scrimmage were the most by a running back duo in the NFL in 2015 and set a franchise record for backfield teammates.

Koetter also played a key role in revamping the Buccaneers' passing game. Part of the team's success passing the ball came from targeting top wide receiver Mike Evans, who caught 74 passes for 1,206 yards. His 1,206 yards are the seventh-most in a single season in team history and stood as the 11th-most in the league last season. Sims' 561 receiving yards were the fourth-most by a running back in the NFL in 2015, while his four receiving touchdowns set a franchise record and tied for the second-most in the league by a running back.

Koetter joined the Buccaneers after three seasons working as the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). During his three seasons with Atlanta, the team cumulatively ranked second in the NFL in completion percentage (67.4), third in third-down conversion percentage (44.1), fourth in passing yards (277.2 per game), ninth in passing touchdowns (86), ninth in passer rating (93.9), 10th in points (24.0 per game) and 10th in total yardage (363.5 per game), while posting the second-fewest penalties (243) and penalty yards (2,043), seventh-fewest turnovers (69) and the ninth-lowest interception percentage (2.4) in the league. Koetter was part of the Falcons staff that went 13-3 in 2012 and played in the NFC Championship Game.

Under Koetter, Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan posted the three of the four highest passing yardage seasons in franchise history, as well as three of the five highest completion percentage seasons. In 2012, Ryan set franchise records and personal bests in passing yards (4,719), completion percentage (68.6) and passing touchdowns (32), while recording the second-highest passer rating mark in Falcons history (99.1). Atlanta wide receivers also flourished under Koetter, with Julio Jones setting a franchise record and ranking third in the NFL in receiving yards in 2014 with 1,593 yards. In those three seasons, the Falcons had a different player lead the team in receiving yards each season (Roddy White, 2012; Harry Douglas, 2013; Jones, 2014).

While Koetter was in charge of the Falcons' offense, he coached three players to Pro Bowl appearances (Julio Jones, 2012, 2014; Tony Gonzalez, 2012-13; Matt Ryan, 2012), with Gonzalez earning first-team All-Pro honors in 2012. In his first season with Koetter in 2012, Gonzalez set a franchise record for receiving yards by a tight end, recording 93 catches for 930 yards — the most he had recorded in either category since 2008. That same season, Jones and White combined for 2,549 receiving yards, the most by a duo in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Koetter spent five seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). In his five years with the Jaguars, the team cumulatively ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (132.0 per game) and sixth in rushing average (4.41). Koetter's Jacksonville offenses also showed a penchant for taking care of the football, tallying the seventh-fewest turnovers in the league during that time.

Koetter had immediate success in Jacksonville, with his 2007 team setting franchise records in points (25.7 per game, sixth in the NFL) and total offense (357 yards per game, seventh in the NFL). In his first season as the starter, quarterback David Garrard ranked third in the NFL and set a franchise record in passer rating (102.2), throwing a league-low three interceptions, while leading the team to a Wild Card playoff berth and a win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2008, Garrard threw for a career-best 3,620 yards and in 2010 he tossed 23 touchdowns, a career high and a franchise record.

While with the Jaguars, Koetter coached four different players to six Pro Bowl selections, including running back Maurice Jones-Drew, who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl and led the NFL in rushing in 2010 en route to earning an All-Pro selection. Koetter also helped tight end Marcedes Lewis earn a Pro Bowl berth following the 2010 season, when Lewis caught 10 touchdown passes, then tied for the most in a season in Jaguars history.

Before joining the Jaguars, Koetter spent 22 years at the collegiate level, the final six as the head coach at Arizona State (2001-06). In his six seasons with the Sun Devils, Koetter led the team to four bowl games, posting a 40-34 record. Working as both the head coach and offensive coordinator, he helped Arizona State average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons, while ranking in the top 20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six years. In addition, five of the six Sun Devil teams during Koetter's tenure produced a 1.000-vard receiver and quarterbacks that threw for 20 or more touchdowns in five of six seasons.

Koetter's first head coaching opportunity came at Boise State, where he spent three seasons (1998-2000), finishing with a 26-10 record and two consecutive bowl wins. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played collegiately at Idaho State (1978-81), helping his team to a Division I-AA national championship as a senior. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a master's in athletic administration a year later. After getting his master's, he became the head coach at Highland (Idaho) High School, where he worked from 1983-84, going 19-4 and winning the 1984 state championship.

In 1985, Koetter worked as the offensive coordinator at San Francisco State and from 1986-88 was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas El-Paso. He then served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 57, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

Nate Kaczor enters his first season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Kaczor (pronounced Kat-sir) comes to Tampa Bay having spent the past four seasons with the Tennessee Titans, the past three as the teams' special teams coordinator (2013-15) after being hired as the assistant offensive line coach in his first season (2012). In 2015, the Titans tied for the NFL lead in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 Kaczor's unit ranked in third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.

In three seasons under Kaczor, Titans punter Brett Kern tied for the third-most punts inside the 20 (94) in the NFL. In 2015, despite punting 88 times, Kern saw only one touchback on the year. In 2014, Kern posted a net average of 40.8, a career best and a Titans franchise record. Kaczor also worked with kicker Ryan Succop, who set a career high in field goal percentage in 2015 (87.5), surpassing the career best he had established the season before.

Kaczor entered the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working there from 2008-11. During those four years, Jacksonville had one of the league's top special teams coverage units, allowing the lowest punt return average in the NFL (6.5 avg.) and the eighth-lowest kickoff return average (21.8 avg.). In each of Kaczor's final two seasons, Montell Owens earned Pro Bowl recognition as a special teams player.

Prior to joining the NFL, Kaczor spent 17 years coaching in college, the final two working as offensive coordinator (2007) and tight ends coach (2006) at Louisiana-Monroe. In his only season as offensive coordinator, the team ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense and averaged its most points scored since 1993. Before his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Kaczor spent two seasons (2004-05) as the co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Idaho and four seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03). Kaczor began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Utah State, working as an offensive assistant for nine seasons (1991-99), helping the team win three conference championships.

A center at Utah State, Kaczor was a team captain, who earned all-conference honors in 1989. A native of Scott City, Kansas, he and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah.

Todd Monken begins his first season as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Monken comes to Tampa Bay from Southern Mississippi, where he spent the past three seasons as the school's head coach (2013-15). After taking over a program that had finished 0-12 the previous season, Monken oversaw a dramatic turnaround that turned the Golden Eagles into postseason bowl participants by the end of his third campaign. Under Monken's guidance, Southern Miss posted a 9-5 record in 2015, winning the Conference USA West division and earning an appearance in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

In 2015, Monken's Southern Miss team ranked in the top 20 in the country in scoring offense (13th, 39.9 ppg), passing offense (12th, 329.7 ypg) and total offense (12th, 509.5 ypg), all of which ranked second in Conference USA. Monken's offense was one of the most explosive in the NCAA, with the Golden Eagles leading the nation in plays of 20+ yards (109) and ranking second in the country in plays of 30+ yards (54). He also oversaw the development of junior quarterback Nick Mullens, who set school records for passing yards (4,476), total touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (38), completions (331) and pass attempts (521). Additionally, running backs Ito Smith and Jalen Richard each recorded at least 1,000 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, while senior wide receiver Mike Thomas set school records in receptions (71), receiving yards (1,391) and receiving touchdowns (14). The Golden Eagles had 10 players named first- or second-team All-Conference USA in 2015, up from one such selection in 2013 and two in 2014.

Before joining Southern Miss, Monken spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Oklahoma State (2011-12), his second stint with the Cowboys, after having worked as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2002-04. During his time as offensive coordinator, the team set school season records for total offensive yards, passing yards, completion percentage, points scored and passing touchdowns.

In 2012, Oklahoma State ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense (4th, 44.7 ppg), total offense (5th, 548.9 ypg) and passing offense (7th, 333.4 ypg). In 2011, Monken tutored quarterback Brandon Weeden, who helped lead the Cowboys to a school-record 12 wins, while setting single-season school records in pass attempts (565), completions (409), passing yards (4,727), passing touchdowns (37) and completion percentage (72.4) and ranking in the top 10 nationally in passing yards, touchdown passes and passing efficiency. Weeden and wide receiver Justin Blackmon – the 2011 Biletnikoff Award Winner – were each first round picks in the 2012 NFL Draft. Blackmon set a school record with 121 receptions in 2011.

Prior to his second stint at Oklahoma State, Monken spent four seasons (2007-10) working as the wide receivers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his time with Jacksonville, Monken coached Reggie Williams, who set the then-team record with 10 touchdown receptions in 2007, as well as Mike Sims-Walker and Mike Thomas, both of whom had career highs in receiving yards under Monken.

Before entering the NFL, Monken served as the passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach at LSU from 2005-06, where he helped develop future first-round NFL Draft selections Dwayne Bowe and Buster Davis. He went to LSU after his first stint at Oklahoma State (2002-04).

Monken began his coaching career at Grand Valley State, spending two seasons as a graduate assistant (1989-90), before holding the same title at Notre Dame (1991-92). He then went on to Eastern Michigan, where he worked as the defensive backs/wide receivers coach (1993-97), before being elevated to the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1998-99). Prior to joining the Oklahoma State staff, Monken served as the running backs coach (2000) and the wide receivers coach (2001) at Louisiana Tech.

A native of Wheaton, III., Monken was a three-year letterwinner at quarterback for Knox College. He earned a bachelor's degree in economics (1989) and followed with a master's degree in education leadership from Grand Valley State. He is a member of the Knox College Athletic Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Terri, have one son, Travis.

Mike Smith begins his first season as defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Smith joins Tampa Bay with 16 years of NFL experience, most recently having spent seven seasons as the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons. While with Atlanta (2008-14). Smith posted a record of 66-46, tied for the seventh-most wins in the NFL during that timeframe. Named Sporting News Coach of the Year three times (2008, 2010 & 2012), Smith recorded 56 wins in his first five seasons, the second-most by a first-time head coach in NFL history. The Falcons won two NFC South division titles under Smith, while making four postseason appearances, including a trip to the NFC Conference Championship in 2012.

Under Smith's guidance, Atlanta's defense saw two top five finishes is fewest points allowed as well as interceptions (2010, 2012). Smith helped several players post career years, including defensive end John Abraham, who tallied a career-best 16.5 sacks in 2008, the third-most in the NFL, leading to a second-team All-Pro selection. Abraham earned a Pro Bowl berth and first-team All-Pro honors after notching 13.5 sacks in 2010, the fifth-most in the league. Abraham totaled 54.5 sacks in Smith's defense, the fourth-most in the NFL during that time. He also saw excellent play from his defensive backs, with CB Brent Grimes (2010/11). Thomas DeCoud (2012/13) and William Moore (2012/13) all earning Pro Bowl selections while playing for Smith.

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Smith spent five seasons (2003-07) as the Jacksonville Jaguars' defensive coordinator. With Smith's leadership, Jacksonville proved to be one of the best defenses in the NFL, allowing the fourth-fewest yards per game (300.1) and points per game (18.2) during that timeframe. Smith's defenses were equally adept at handling the run and the pass, as the team allowed the third-lowest rushing average (3.75) and fifth-fewest rushing yards (99.5 per game) and rushing touchdowns (49), while conceding the sixth-lowest passer rating (76.9) and recording the eighth-most interceptions (90).

Smith began his NFL career with the Baltimore Ravens, entering the league as a defensive assistant/ defensive line coach (1999-2001), before being elevated to linebackers coach in 2002. Smith was part of the coaching staff that won Super Bowl XXXV, behind a defense that allowed only 165 points (10.3 points per game), an NFL record in a 16-game season. In his one season as linebackers coach, Smith worked with Ray Lewis, who earned All-Pro honors, and Peter Boulware, who was elected to the Pro Bowl.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Smith spent 12 seasons at Tennessee Tech (1987-98). He was the Golden Eagles' defensive coordinator for the last three seasons (1996-98), including two top 10 finishes in total defense (1997 & 1998). He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as the defensive line coach (1987) and then served as the Special Teams Coordinator from 1988-95. In his final season with the Golden Eagles, Smith was promoted to assistant head coach on top of his defensive coordinator duties.

Smith played collegiately at East Tennessee (1977-81) and was named defensive MVP twice. He and his wife, Julie, have one daughter, Logan.

Mike Bajakian begins his second season as quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

In his first season with the Buccaneers, Bajakian (pronounced buh-JAKE-ee-an) coached rookie quarterback Jameis Winston, who helped guide Tampa Bay's offense to a Top five finish in the NFL and the most yards in team history. Winston finished the season completing 312-of-535 passes (58.3 pct.) for 4,042 yards, with 22 passing touchdowns and six rushing touchdowns. Winston set team rookie records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts, pass completions and passer rating (84.2). His 4,042 passing yards were the second-most in a single season in team history and the third-most by a rookie in NFL history. Winston's 22 passing touchdowns were tied for the fourth-most in a single season in team history and the fourth-most by a rookie in NFL history. His six rushing touchdowns and 28 combined touchdowns were the most in a single season by a Buccaneers quarterback, while his 28 total touchdowns were tied for the third-most by a rookie in NFL history.

Bajakian came to Tampa Bay from the University of Tennessee, where he spent the previouus two seasons (2013-14) as the team's offensive coordinator. Bajakian was part of the coaching staff that helped the 2014 Volunteers earn the school's first bowl game appearance since 2010 and first bowl victory since 2007, winning the 2015 Taxslayer Bowl. Tennessee went 4-1 in the final five games of the season, behind sophomore quarterback Joshua Dobbs, who set a Tennessee single-game record for rushing yards by a quarterback in a win over South Carolina. In that same game, the team tied a school record with 35 first downs, en route to racking up 645 yards of offense, its most against an SEC opponent since 1997. During the team's 4-1 stretch to end the season, it averaged 37 points per game, including three games of at least 45 points. In his first season with Tennessee, the team rushed for 2,261 yards, its most since 2004.

Prior to joining the Volunteers, Bajakian worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the University of Cincinnati (2010-12). While with the Bearcats, quarterback Zach Collaros became only the second passer in school history to throw for 6,000 yards (6,278) and 50 touchdowns (51). Cincinnati won conference titles in each of the final two seasons that Bajakian coached there, with the 2012 team leading the Big East in scoring offense, rushing offense and yards per play. The 2011 team also led the Big East in rushing, producing the Conference Offensive Player of the Year in running back Isaiah Pead. The 2010 squad led the Big East in scoring offense, total offense and passing offense.

From 2007-09, Bajakian worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Central Michigan, where he had previously worked as the quarterbacks coach (2002-03). In his three seasons as the Chippewas' offensive coordinator, the team posted its three highest-scoring offenses since joining the MAC in 1975 and his offenses set or broke more than 30 school records. Led by quarterback Dan LeFevour, who ended his career with 150 touchdowns - then an NCAA FBS-record - and Antonio Brown, who set season and career marks for total receptions and 1,000-yard seasons, the Chippewas won conference championships in 2007 and 2009. LeFevour, a two-time MAC Offensive Player of the year, finished his career with 15,853 yards of total offense, then the NCAA's second-highest career total.

Bajakian has previously worked in the NFL, working with the wide receivers as the Chicago Bears offensive quality control coach for three seasons (2004-06). He was a member of the 2006 Bears team that won the NFC Championship and played in Super Bowl XLI.

In 1996, Bajakian got his start in coaching, spending two seasons (1996-97) as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator for Delbarton School (Morristown, New Jersey). He also coached at Rutgers (graduate assistant/defensive backs, 1998-99), Sacred Heart (quarterbacks coach, 2000) and Michigan (graduate assistant/quarterbacks, 2000-01), before his first stint with Central Michigan in 2002.

A native of River Vale, New Jersey, Bajakian was an All-New England Small College Athletic Conference and All-ECAC quarterback at Williams College. He and his wife, Michelene, have four children: Mary, Anna, Emma and Sammy and are expecting their fifth child in November.

Butch Barry begins his second season as assistant offensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016

In 2015, his first season with the team, Barry assisted an offensive line that featured two rookie starters, but still managed to block for the NFL's second-leading rusher (Doug Martin – 1,402 yards) and tied for the fourthfewest sacks allowed in the league, after ranking 29th in rushing and 29th in sacks allowed in the previous season

Barry joined the Buccaneers from Central Michigan University, where he spent the previous five seasons coaching the offensive line (2014) and tight ends (2010-13). In 2014, Barry's unit paved the way for a 1,000yard season by running back Thomas Rawls, a key cog in the Chippewas' offense who rushed for 1,103 yards and 10 touchdowns in only nine games. As tight ends coach, Barry headed a group that combined for 63 receptions for 644 yards and six touchdowns over 2012-13, while helping Central Michigan record another 1,000-yard rusher in Zurlon Tipton, who finished with 1,492 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2012.

Barry began his coaching career with the Chippewas as a graduate assistant in 2002-03 prior to coaching stops at Southwest Minnesota State University (2004-05), Michigan Tech University (2006-08) and North Greenville University (2009).

Dave Borgonzi enters his sixth season in the NFL and his third with the Buccaneers, serving as the defensive quality control coach. He will be working primarily with the Buccaneers linebackers.

Last season, Borgonzi helped a defense that ranked in the Top 10 in yards allowed (340.4), while allowing the second-lowest rushing average in the NFL (3.45 avg.).

In his first season with the Buccaneers (2014), Borgonzi assisted a defense that improved throughout the year, ranking 14th in points allowed per game and net yards allowed per game during the final 10 weeks of the season, after ranking 32nd in each category over the first six weeks, prior to the Buccaneers' Week 7 Bye.

Borgonzi joined Tampa Bay following three seasons as a coaching assistant for the Dallas Cowboys, working on the defensive side of the ball for his first two years (2011-12) — working with the secondary — before moving to offense in 2013 and helping coach the offensive line. His primary duties included assisting in weekly breakdowns and scouting reports of each opponent, while also working with the scout team during daily practices. In 2013, Borgonzi assisted an offense that finished fifth in the NFL in total points scored.

Before joining the Cowboys in 2011, Borgonzi spent five years coaching in the college ranks at Harvard (2008-10) and Syracuse (2006-07).

While at Harvard, Borgonzi served as the assistant defensive secondary coach and helped with the school's recruiting. In 2010, Harvard ranked 16th nationally in total defense. In 2009 the Crimson ranked sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense while three players were named All-lvy League and cornerback Matthew Hanson earned Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to coaching at Harvard, Borgonzi spent two years at Syracuse as a graduate assistant working with the secondary and defensive line. At Syracuse, Borgonzi also assisted the team with special teams and recruiting. Working for the Orange, Borgonzi earned his master's degree in education.

Borgonzi played linebacker at Amherst College (2001-2004) in Amherst, Massachusetts, where he was a three-year starter and named team captain his senior year.

Borgonzi graduated with a degree in law, jurisprudence and social thought. He is a native of Everett, Massachusetts, and is married to Alyssa. The couple have a daughter, Gianna.

Mark Duffner begins his first season with the Buccaneers in 2016, as the team's linebackers coach.

Duffner brings a wealth of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, with 19 previous years in the NFL and 22 years in the college ranks, including 11 as a collegiate head coach. He joins the Buccaneers after most recently having coached linebackers with the Miami Dolphins (2014-15).

While with the Dolphins, Duffner helped bring Jelani Jenkins from a chiefly special teams player into a starting role, where Jenkins proceeded to lead the team with 108 tackles in 2014, becoming one of only three players in the NFL that season to record 100+ tackles, 3.5 or more sacks and two-or-more forced fumbles.

Prior to his time with Miami, Duffner spent eight seasons (2006-13) coaching linebackers with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he helped Paul Posluszny earn a Pro Bowl selection following the 2013 season, marking the first time a Jacksonville linebacker had earned that distinction since 1999.

From 2003-05. Duffner worked with the Green Bay Packers, where he was instrumental in developing first-round draft pick Nick Barnett, who led the team in tackles for each of his three years under Duffner's instruction. In 2005, the Green Bay defense finished the season ranked first in the league against the pass and seventh overall.

Duffner's first foray into the NFL came with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he spent six seasons as linebackers coach (1997-2000) and defensive coordinator (2001-02). In his first year as coordinator in 2001, the Bengals defense allowed the unit's fewest points (309) since 1989 and fewest yards per game (302) since 1983. In addition, the defense set a franchise single-season record for sacks that year with 48, a mark that stood for 11 seasons.

In the college coaching ranks, Duffner compiled an 80-40-1 record as a collegiate head coach for both the University of Maryland (1992-96) and The College of the Holy Cross (1986-91). While with the Terrapins, Duffner led the team to their best two-season record in over a decade during his final two years, as well as seeing Maryland return to the national rankings in 199 for the first time in nine seasons. As head coach of the Crusaders, Holy Cross won five Patriot League championships, four Lambert Cups and four ECAC Team of the Year awards. Duffner's team also earned the No. 1 ranking in the final 1987 NCAA Division I-AA poll. He was named Patriot League Coach of the Year four times, while also earning National Coach of the Year honors in 1987 and 1991. Duffner's .917 winning percentage (60-5-1) was the best in school and Patriot League history when he left the program. He was inducted into The College of Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 2008.

Duffner broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at Ohio State, working under Woody Hayes from 1975-76 while he earned a master's degree. He moved on to the defensive coordinator's role at the University of Cincinnati, a position he held for four years, from 1977-80.

Originally from Annandale, Virginia, Duffner played collegiate football at William & Mary from 1972-74. He was inducted into the Tribe's Hall of Fame in 1990.

Duffner and his wife, Kathy have two daughters, Christina and Carolyn, and one son, John, as well as two granddaughters, Camilla and Ava.

Jon Embree begins his third season as tight ends coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Last season, starting tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins was limited to seven games, but still improved his receiving numbers from his rookie season, catching 21 passes for 338 yards (16.1 avg.) and four touchdowns. Seferian-Jenkins' 16.1 receiving average was the second-highest of any tight end in the NFL with at least 20 receptions. Embree's also oversaw the development of first-year tight end Cameron Brate. who began the season on the team's practice squad, but finished the season with 23 catches for 288 yards and three touchdowns. Combined with tight end Luke Stocker's touchdown catch, Buccaneers tight ends caught eight touchdowns, the most for the team since 2007, when Tampa Bay tight ends combined for 10 touchdown receptions.

In 2014, Embree worked with Seferian-Jenkins, who, despite being limited to nine games on the year, recorded 21 catches for 221 yards and two touchdowns. His 21 catches and 221 yards were the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie tight end, while his two touchdown receptions tied for the third-most.

Embree came to Tampa Bay after spending the 2013 season as the tight ends coach with Cleveland, during which Browns tight end Jordan Cameron earned a Pro Bowl berth and ranked second in the NFL in receiving yards by a tight end.

In his career, Embree has spent 17 years at the University of Colorado as a player and coach, including two seasons (2011-12) as the Buffaloes' head coach. Prior to his stint as Colorado's head coach, he spent 11 seasons (1991, 1993-2002) as an assistant coach following a standout collegiate playing career, where he was a four-year letterman (1983-86). As an assistant coach, he worked in a myriad of roles, including overseeing the tight ends (1993-94, 1999-2000), defensive ends (1995-98) and wide receivers/kickers (2001-02). After serving as a volunteer assistant in 1991, Embree spent one season coaching at Douglas County High School before re-joining the Buffalos for the next 10 years.

He spent three seasons at UCLA, first as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and then as assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05). While with the Bruins, he helped shape tight end Marcedes Lewis, who would win the 2005 John Mackey award, given to the nation's top tight end. That season, Lewis set school records for a tight end with 58 receptions and 10 touchdowns en route to being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Embree spent the next three seasons (2006-08) as the tight ends coach with the Kansas City Chiefs. Tony Gonzalez was selected to the Pro Bowl each season under Embree and led all NFL tight ends with 268 receptions and 3,130 receiving yards during that three-year span.

Embree spent one season (2010) coaching the tight ends with the Washington Redskins. That season, Chris Cooley finished second on the team with 77 receptions, while adding 849 yards with three touchdowns. Embree returned to Colorado as head coach following his stint in Washington.

Following his playing career with the Buffaloes, where he finished in the top five in school history in both career receptions (80) and yards (1.116), Embree was a sixth-round pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played two seasons with the Rams before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989, while with the Seattle Seahawks.

A native of Englewood, Colorado, Embree earned his degree in communications in 1987. He and his wife, Natalyn, have two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. Jon's father, John, played two seasons (1969-70) as a wide receiver with the Denver Broncos.

Jay Hayes enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016, where he will coach the team's defensive line.

Hayes comes to Tampa Bay following 13 seasons (2003-15) as the defensive line coach with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he helped bring about a line that in recent years has gained acclaim as one of the league's best. His unit played an important role in helping the Bengals to playoff berths in six of the past seven seasons, including five consecutive years from 2011-15.

In 2015, Cincinnati's defensive line finished the year with 37.5 of the team's 42 sacks and earned distinction as the only unit in the league to feature two players recording 10+ sacks, as defensive end Carlos Dunlap and defensive tackle Geno Atkins finished the regular season with 13.5 and 11.0, respectively. The line also contributed heavily to Cincinnati's success against the run, as the team finished seventh in the league last season, allowing 92.3 yards per game. This trend began over the final seven games of the 2014 season, where Hayes' group helped the team to allow an average of only 82.0 yards per game, second-best in the NFL during that span.

While with the Bengals, Hayes helped develop Atkins from a fourth-round pick in 2010 to one of the league's most dominant interior defenders, as the defensive tackle earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2012 and 2015 and Pro Bowl nods in 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015.

Hayes' success with developing players led to a rare distinction in 2012, as three of his linemen won AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Since the inception of the awards in 1985, there had only been six prior instances of three separate winners from the same team and position group in one season.

Prior to his time with the Bengals, Hayes worked as special teams coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2001 and then in the same capacity with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002, where the team tied for fifth in punt coverage.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Hayes spent 11 years coaching collegiately with Notre Dame, California and Wisconsin.

He played defensive end at the University of Idaho, earning all-conference honors in 1980 and 1981 before spending time in NFL camps and eventually playing professionally in the USFL for the Michigan Panthers and Memphis Showboats.

Hayes is a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and attend South Fayette High School. He and his wife, Suzanne, have three children: son, Jesse, a former linebacker at Wisconsin; daughter, Jazmin, a former basketball player at Lafayette College; and son, Miles, a defensive back at William & Mary.

Jon Hoke begins his 14th season in the NFL and his first season as secondary coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Hoke joins Tampa Bay after spending 2015 as the South Carolina co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach. Before returning to the college ranks, Hoke spent six seasons on the Chicago Bears' coaching staff (2009-14), working as the teams' defensive backs coach.

Under Hoke's tutelage, cornerbacks Tim Jennings and Charles Tillman earned four Pro Bowl selections, with Tillman being named first-team All-Pro (2012) and Jennings being named second-team All-Pro (2012). During Hoke's six seasons, Chicago tied for the fourth-most interceptions in the NFL (111) and led the NFL in interceptions returned for touchdowns, with 20.

In 2012, Tillman and Jennings were both named Pro Bowl starters, the first cornerback tandem to do so since 1988 (Hanford Dixon and Frank Minnifield, Cleveland Browns). Jennings led the NFL with nine interceptions, tied for the second-most in Bears history, while Tillman led the NFL with a career-best 10 forced fumbles. Hoke also helped guide safety Chris Harris to a second-team All-Pro selection (2010).

Prior to his time in Chicago, Hoke worked as the Houston Texans' defensive backs coach for seven seasons (2002-08), his first NFL coaching experience. During his time with the Texans, defensive backs accounted for 82.8 percent (72 of 87) of the teams' interceptions.

Before joining Houston, Hoke spent three years with the Florida Gators (1999-2001) as the teams' defensive coordinator/secondary coach, adding the title of assistant head coach in his final two seasons. Hoke started his coaching career in 1983, working as the Bowling Green secondary/special teams coach (1983-86), before moving on to San Diego State (1987-88), working as the defensive backs/special teams coach. He then spent four seasons as the defensive backs coach at Kent State (1989-93), adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season. Hoke spent five seasons coaching defensive backs at Missouri (1994-98), before moving on to Florida.

A four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), Hoke was named All-MAC at defensive back and earned degrees in physical education and history. He played one season in the NFL, appearing in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980. A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children: Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly.

Dave Kennedy begins his third season as head strength & conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016

Kennedy joined the Buccaneers after five seasons with Texas A&M (2008-12). Before joining A&M, Kennedy spent four seasons with Nebraska (2004-07), the same school he got his start at in 1982 as a student assistant. He graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in strength coaching and worked as an assistant for the Huskers from 1986-88.

Prior to the 1989 season, Kennedy was hired on at Ohio State, working there until 2001. During his 13 seasons with the Buckeyes he worked with many notable players, including 17 first-round NFL draft selections. Before the 1993 Holiday Bowl, Kennedy received Ohio State's Admiral's Trophy, which is voted on by the players and given to the person whose dedication, hard work and spirit most inspired the team. Kennedy also spent two seasons at Pittsburgh (2002-03).

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, he and his wife, Julie, have three sons: Ben, Nick and Eric.

Brett Maxie begins his first season as defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Maxie comes to Tampa Bay after having spending the past two seasons at Vanderbilt, working as the secondary coach (2014) and cornerbacks coach (2015). Prior to his time at Vanderbilt, Maxie spent two seasons with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13), serving as the defensive backs coach. Under Maxie's guidance, cornerback Alterraun Verner earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2013, after registering a career-high five interceptions and 22 passes defensed, which tied for the league lead. Before joining the Titans staff, Maxie spent three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2008-11), as the team's defensive backs coach, helping Mike Jenkins and Terence Newman earn Pro Bowl selections in 2009.

In his one season working in Dom Capers' defense at the Dolphins in 2007, Miami fielded the fourth-best passing defense in the NFL, limiting opponents to 188.7 passing yards per game. The secondary corps also accounted for nine of the 14 team interceptions.

In four years at Atlanta (2004-06) as defensive backs coach, Maxie helped DeAngelo Hall develop into a twotime Pro Bowl (2005 & 2006) cornerback and total 10 interceptions during those seasons. The 2004 season saw the secondary score a club-record five touchdowns, including four via interception returns. He spent five seasons with the 49ers (1999-2003), including three seasons as the assistant secondary coach and the final two years as secondary coach. During a three-year period (2001-03) with the 49ers, Maxie's secondary totaled 66 interceptions — the third highest number in the NFL during that time. His first NFL coaching job came at Carolina in 1998 as a quality control coach. Maxie started his 13-year NFL career as an undrafted safety from Texas Southern, who signed with the New Orleans Saints. During his career, he played in 153 games, including 104 starts, and recorded 23 interceptions and three touchdowns. Maxie played nine seasons (1985-93) with the Saints, one season in Atlanta (1994), two years in Carolina (1995-96) and finished his career with one year in San Francisco (1997).

A native of Dallas, Texas, Maxie and his wife, Angela, have two sons, Brett and Adam, and two daughters, Maya and Olivia. At Texas Southern, he earned his degree in Biology and was a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Carlos Polk begins his seventh season in the NFL and his third season as assistant special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

In his first two seasons with Tampa Bay, Polk worked with one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL. allowing only 5.5 yards per punt return, the lowest mark in the NFL during that timeframe. Additionally, the Buccaneers have blocked a field goal (2014) and a punt (2015) over the past two seasons.

In 2015, Polk helped coach punt returner Bobby Rainey, who was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 5 against Jacksonville. In the contest against the Jaguars, Rainey totaled 85 punt return yards, including a career-long 58 yard return, the longest return by a Buccaneers player since 2009. Rainey's 85 punt return yards were the most for a Tampa Bay returner since 2008. Rainey finished the year ranked in the Top 10 in punt return average, punt return yards and total return yards.

Polk joined Tampa Bay following one season (2013) as a coaching intern for the Dallas Cowboys, where his primary duties included assisting with all areas of practice, breakdowns and weekly planning.

Before joining the Cowboys in 2013, Polk spent three years in San Diego (2010-12) as the special teams assistant and one year in the college ranks as a linebackers and special teams coach at Grossmont (Calif.) College (2009).

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Polk spent eight years (2001-08) in the NFL as a linebacker and special teams player, where he compiled 120 tackles, four sacks and three forced fumbles playing for San Diego (2001-07) and Dallas (2008).

A first-team All-American linebacker at Nebraska (1997-2000), Polk played in 47 games including 23 starts in his final 23 contests. Polk finished his college career with 227 tackles, 10.0 sacks and two interceptions (one returned for touchdown).

Polk graduated with a degree in sociology from Nebraska. He is a native of Rockford, Illinois, and is married to Monique. He has two sons, Devonn and C.J., and two daughters, Deja and Miracle.

Tim Spencer begins his third season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

In 2015, Spencer was named Pro Football Focus' "Running Backs Coach of the Year," after helping Buccaneers running back Doug Martin earn first-team AP All-Pro Honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl. Martin rushed 288 times for 1,402 yards and six touchdowns. His 1,402 rushing yards were the second-most in the NFL and the third-most in team history. His 4.87 yards per carry stand as the highest mark in the NFL by any running back with at least 250 carries since 2013 (LeSean McCoy, 5.12 on 314 carries) and is the most in team history among running backs with at least 250 carries in a season.

In addition to Martin's banner season, second-year running back Charles Sims totaled 1,090 scrimmage yards (107 rushes for 529 yards, 51 catches for 561 yards). Sims averaged 6.9 yards per touch, the most by any player in the NFL with at least 150 touches since 2011 (Darren Sproles in 2011, 7.6 avg.). Martin and Sims' combined 2,566 yards from scrimmage were the most by a running back duo in the NFL in 2015 and set a franchise record for backfield teammates. The Buccaneers finished the year rushing for 2,162 yards (135.1 per game), the second-most in a single season in team history and the fifth-most in the NFL last year.

Dealing with an injury-plagued running backs group in 2014, Spencer managed to coax performances out of all three of the main runners. Doug Martin led the team in rushing, including two performances of 90+ rushing yards in the final three games of the season. Bobby Rainey showed his versatility, rushing 94 times while catching 33 passes, averaging 5.7 scrimmage yards per touch, the second-highest average by a running back. Charles Sims, who started the season on the Injured Reserve/Designated to Return list, saw his first game action in Week 10 and, over the final eight games of the year, racked up 190 receiving yards — the seventh-highest mark by a running back during that span.

Spencer served as running backs coach for the Chicago Bears for nine seasons (2004-12). Spencer had great success tutoring Chicago's ball carriers, with individual players recording 1,000-yard rushing seasons on five different occasions (Thomas Jones – 2005-06; Matt Forté – 2008, 2010, 2012), and the team surpassing the 2,000-yard rushing mark twice (2005, 2011), marking the only two times such a feat has been accomplished in Bears history, and coming less than 100 yards shy of that mark in 2006.

Under Spencer's guidance, Forté blossomed, breaking franchise rookie records in 2008 in rushing yards (1,238), yards from scrimmage (1,715) and receptions (63) and becoming one of just one of eight rookies in NFL history to rush for 1,000-plus yards and record 50-plus receptions. In Forté's five seasons with Spencer, the running back became the first player for Chicago to record 1,000-plus yards from scrimmage in each of his first five NFL seasons, the first player in franchise history with 900 rushing yards in each of his first five seasons with the team and the first running back in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in four seasons. Forté was selected to the Pro Bowl following his 2011 campaign in which he ranked third in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (123.9) and sixth in rushing yards per game (83.1).

During Spencer's time with the Bears, Chicago running backs claimed six of the top seven single-season reception totals at the position in team history and compiled 15,472 yards on 3,939 carries.

Spencer began his coaching career at The Ohio State University, where he tutored running backs from 1994-2003. With the Buckeyes, Spencer coached Eddie George during George's Heisman Trophy-winning season in 1995 and during the team's national championship season in 2002. He was part of three Big Ten championship teams and his position group helped an OSU offense that led the Big Ten in scoring offense and total offense in three of his 10 seasons. Including George (twice), he produced 1,000-yard rushers on six occasions.

A Buckeye running back himself. Spencer played for OSU from 1979-1982, leading the team in rushing during his final two seasons and closing his career with 3.553 yards on the ground and serving as a senior cocaptain and team MVP. Spencer was the second-overall pick in the 1983 USFL draft, where he played one year each for Chicago (1983), Arizona (1984), and Memphis (1985), before playing for the San Diego Chargers (1985-90), where he was a four-year starter at fullback.

Spencer and his wife, Gilda, have two sons, Cole and Evan. Evan, who played wide at Ohio State, was selected by the Washington Redskins in the sixth round (187th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and is currently on the Buccaneers roster.

Paul Spicer begins his second season as assistant defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

In his first season with Tampa Bay (2015). Spicer helped coach a unit that anchored Tampa Bay's run defense, which ranked second in the NFL in yards per carry allowed (3.45), while ranking 10th in sacks per pass play. Tampa Bay totaled 38 sacks in 2015, the team's most since 2004. The defensive line was headed by defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, whose 8.5 sacks led the team and were the fourth-most by a defensive tackle in the NFL. McCoy earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl invitation following the 2015 season.

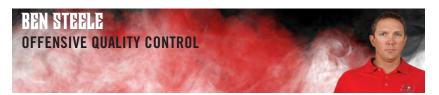

Spicer entered the league as a player with the Detroit Lions in 1999, before spending the majority of the next nine seasons (2000-08) with the Jacksonville Jaguars, including being named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2005. He earned a Super Bowl XLIV championship with the New Orleans Saints in his final year (2009).

During his playing career, Spicer played in 115 games with 63 starts, totaling 259 tackles, 28.5 sacks, 16 passes defensed, seven forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and one interception. Spicer also spent time with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1998-99) and the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe (2001-02).

After his playing career concluded, Spicer spent one season (2010) as assistant defensive line coach for Bartram Trail High School (Saint Johns, Florida), before joining the Jaguars, where he worked as the assistant defensive line coach for two seasons (2011-12). Spicer has also worked as a coach for the East-West Shrine Bowl from 2012-14.

A native of Indianapolis, Spicer attended the College of DuPage (Glen Ellyn, Illinois), before transferring to Saginaw Valley State. He graduated from the University of Phoenix in 2013, with a degree in business management. He and his wife, Shariffa, have five children: Asha, Daniel, Laura, Paul Jr. and Amirah.

Ben Steele begins his third season as offensive quality control coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

Last year, Steele assisted with an offense that set the franchise record for total yards (6,014-357.0 per game), while posting the second-most rushing yards (2,162-135.1 per game) and second-most passing yards (3,852-240.8 per game), along with the fifth-most total points (342-21.4 per game). Tampa Bay ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (375.9), fifth in rushing yards per game (135.1) and second in the league in rush average (4.75). It marked the first time in franchise history that the Buccaneers have finished in the Top five in total offense.

Steele joined the team following a season as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for UC-Davis (2013). Prior to his time with the Aggies, Steele spent two seasons (2011-12) at the University of California, as an administrative assistant for Cal's offensive staff. He also worked two years with the University of Colorado as an operations and recruiting assistant (2009) and graduate assistant (2010), as well as spending a year at his alma mater, Mesa State (now known as Colorado Mesa) as an offensive assistant coach (2008).

Steele played professionally from 2001-07 with the San Francisco 49ers, Oakland Raiders, Minnesota Vikings, Seattle Seahawks, Green Bay Packers and Houston Texans. He joined the NFL following two seasons at Mesa State where he was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference honoree. He spent his first two collegiate seasons at Fort Lewis College prior to transferring to Mesa State.

Steele graduated with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, with an emphasis in broadcasting and received master's credit in 2006 while attending the NFL's Executive Business Program at the Harvard Business School. He is married to Rachel. The couple have two daughters, Cora and Elise.

George Warhop begins his third season as offensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.

In 2015, Warhop coached an offensive line that featured two rookie starters and only one holdover from the previous year - left guard Logan Mankins, who earned a Pro Bowl berth following the 2015 season. These changes helped the Buccaneers put together one of the top offensive lines in the NFL, with the team blocking for the NFL's second-leading rushing (running back Doug Martin -1,402 yards) and 2,162 team rushing vards — the fifth-most rushing vards in the NFL and the second-most in a season in team history. Tampa Bay's offensive line also allowed only 27 sacks, tied for the fourth-fewest in the league.

Warhop joined the Buccaneers after five seasons with Cleveland (2009-13) as the offensive line coach. While with the Browns, Warhop coached tackle Joe Thomas to Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors each season. Warhop also helped center Alex Mack to an all-rookie selection in 2009, while also earning Pro Bowl berths in 2010 and 2013, with a second-team All-Pro selection in 2013.

Prior to joining Cleveland, Warhop spent four seasons with San Francisco (2005-08), helping running back Frank Gore record three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, including a franchise-record 1,695 in 2006. Warhop ioined the 49ers after two seasons with Dallas (2003-04), where he helped tackle Flozell Adams and guard Larry Allen earn Pro Bowl berths each year.

Warhop got his start in the NFL as an assistant offensive line coach with St. Louis (1996-97) before becoming the offensive line coach in Arizona (1998-2002). Before entering the NFL, Warhop spent 11 seasons as a collegiate coach at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89), New Mexico (1990-91), Southern Methodist (1993) and Boston College (1994-95). Warhop also spent two seasons as a coach for the London Monarchs in NFL Europe (1991-92).

Andrew Weidinger enters his second season with Tampa Bay in 2016, working as the Buccaneers' assistant wide receivers coach/game management, after holding an offensive quality control position in 2015.

Last year, Weidinger assisted with an offense that set the franchise record for total yards (6,014 – 357.0 per game), while posting the second-most rushing yards (2,162-135.1) per game) and second-most passing yards (3.852 - 240.8 per game), along with the fifth-most total points (342 - 21.4 per game). Tampa Bay ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (375.9), fifth in rushing yards per game (135.1) and second in the league in rush average (4.75). It marked the first time in franchise history that the Buccaneers have finished in the Top five in total offense.

Weidinger joined the Buccaneers after eight seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2007-14). He got his start with the Falcons working as a personnel scout in 2007, before working as the assistant to the Head Coach/ offense for four seasons (2008-11).

In 2012, Weidinger was named offensive assistant, working with an Atlanta offense that ranked in the top 10 in points per game and passing yards per game. Weidinger worked as the offensive assistant for three seasons (2012-14).

Before joining Atlanta, Weidinger spent seven seasons working at the University of Arizona (2000-07), serving in a number of positions, including Assistant Director of Football Operations.

Weidinger earned a degree in political science in May of 2004 and completed his master's degree in Information Resources and Library Sciences in May of 2007. He interned with the Falcons in the 2006 preseason.

Zack Grossi enters his third season with the Buccaneers and first as Assistant to the Head Coach, after joining Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant in 2014 and being elevated to Pro Scout in 2015. As Assistant to the Head Coach, Grossi manages a variety of responsibilities pertaining to Head Coach Dirk Koetter, including the day-to-day operations of the Buccaneers coaching staff, collaboration with the team's personnel department, and player evaluations, among other duties.

As a pro scout, Grossi assisted Coordinator of Pro Scouting Rob McCartney with advance scouting of future opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts and assisting with free agency and college evaluations.

Prior to his time with Tampa Bay, Grossi worked as an offensive graduate assistant, tight ends coach and video coordinator for his alma mater, Concord University.

A native of Tampa, Florida, Grossi earned a bachelor's degree in recreation and tourism management from Concord in 2013. Grossi and his wife Jacqueline reside in Odessa, Florida.

John Spytek enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2016 as the Director of Player Personnel. Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Spytek spent three seasons with the Denver Broncos, where he worked as Southwest area scout in 2013, before being elevated to national scout, a position he held for two years (2014-15). The Broncos' 37 regular season and 42 overall wins were the most in the NFL over that three-year span, culminating in a Super Bowl 50 victory on February 7, 2016.

Before joining the Broncos, Spytek spent three seasons (2010-12) as the Cleveland Browns' director of college scouting. While with the Browns, Spytek assisted in drafting six players who earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and five players who were selected to a Pro Bowl.

Spytek began his player personnel career working as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, earning a full-time college scouting assistant position in 2006 and spending three years as a college/pro scout from 2007-09. His first job in the NFL was as an operations intern with the Detroit Lions in 2004.

John and his wife, Kristen, serve as vice president and president, respectively, of the National CMV Foundation. They founded the organization in 2013 to inform and educate families about the prevention of congenital CMV, a virus that ultimately claimed the life of their 21-month old daughter, Evelyn, in 2014. The couple is also parents to one son, Jack.

A native of Pewaukee, Wisconsin, Spytek played linebacker at Michigan from 1999-2002, earning a bachelor's degree in general studies and a master's in sports management.

Mike Biehl enters his third season with Tampa Bay in 2016, working as the team's director of college scouting, where he will be responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff.

Biehl assisted General Manager Jason Licht in the 2015 NFL Draft, where the team held the first overall pick, used to select quarterback Jameis Winston, who earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection, while setting nearly every rookie passing record in Buccaneers history. The 2015 draft also saw Tampa Bay select tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall), guard Ali Marpet (61st overall) and linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall), all of who earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001-13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008-13), after being promoted from college scout (2001-07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998-2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Champaign, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife. Kim. have two children: son Nathan, and daughter Kendall.

Mike Greenberg enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers and fourth as director of football administration, having spent the previous two seasons as the coordinator of football administration, after originally joining the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

In his role as Director of Football Administration, Greenberg has overseen long-term contract extensions for both linebacker Layonte David and defensive tackle Gerald McCov, each of whom have earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors during their time with Tampa Bay.

Greenberg joined the Buccaneers after working with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and with a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey. He and his wife. Ilana, reside in Tampa.

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles joined Tampa Bay's front office. This season, Quarles enters his third year as director of football operations, after spending two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his current role, Quarles works directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout. Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only two players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonguarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Quarles also served on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (2009-2016) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. He was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles is married to Damaris and the couple resides in Tampa with their daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio.

Rob McCartney enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and first as director of pro scouting, after two seasons as the team's pro scouting coordinator.

As director of pro scouting, McCartney oversees the Buccaneers pro personnel staff and advance reports, along with the evaluation of opponents, pro leagues, free agents and trade prospects.

McCartney spent the 2014 season as a national scout, following two seasons as a pro scout, a title he earned after being elevated from a pro personnel assistant.

While working as a national scout, McCartney was responsible for scouting top college prospects east of the Mississippi River.

As a pro scout, McCartney assisted Tampa Bay's pro personnel department with advance scouting of the Buccaneers' opponents, as well as organizing player workouts and the evaluation of all pro leagues. McCartney also assisted the head coach and general manager in the evaluation of free agents.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the player personnel department from 2006-08.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. Rob and his wife Kristi reside in Tampa.

Shane Scannell enters his second season with the Buccaneers and his first as a pro scout, after spending the 2015 season as a scouting assistant.

In Scannell's current role, he will assist Director of Pro Scouting Rob McCartney with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts and assisting with free agency and college evaluations.

While working as one of the team's scouting assistants, Scannell helped in player evaluations, organizing and executing free agent workouts and draft preparations.

Scannell played football collegiately at Wesleyan University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology. A native of Mawah, New Jersey, he played high school football at Don Bosco. He currently resides in Tampa.

Steve West enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers and third as a pro scout, after being elevated from scouting assistant following the 2013 season.

As a pro scout, West will assist Coordinator of Pro Scouting Rob McCartney with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts and assisting with free agency and college evaluations.

West began his NFL career in 2009, working as an offensive assistant for the Oakland Raiders, a position he held for three years, before joining the New York Jets in 2012, where he worked as a pro personnel/football operations assistant.

A native of Bayonne, New Jersey, West earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Saint Joseph's in 2007 and received a master's in sport management from the University of San Francisco in 2010. West and his wife, Emily, reside in Tampa.

Byron Kiefer enters his 12th season overall and second as a national scout with the Buccaneers. Kiefer spent the previous nine seasons working as an area scout. He has been a part of two NFC South division championships (2005 and 2007) in Tampa Bay.

Previously. Kiefer was the Buccaneers' National Football Scouting representative, in which his focus was scouting players in the Southeast as well as working with the NFL combine, where he helped the NFL select invitees to the annual event.

He began his career with the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2005. In this role, Kiefer assisted in daily transactions and coordinated player tryouts. He also assisted in scouting other pro leagues, including NFL Europa, CFL and AFL.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kiefer worked in the University of South Florida football office during the 2003 season, assisting with football operations and recruiting. He also worked as a trade support associate at Raymond James Financial from 2003-05.

Kiefer graduated from Mercer University in 2003, where he was a letterman pitcher on the baseball team. Kiefer and his wife, Mirela, have two sons, Tyson and Nolin. They reside in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Andy Speyer enters his third season with the Buccaneers working as a national scout. In his role as national scout, Speyer will be responsible for scouting college prospects west of the Mississippi River.

Speyer joined Tampa Bay after 12 seasons working with the Philadelphia Eagles' player personnel department, including 11 as a college scout, covering the Southwest, Midwest and Northeast regions at various points during that time. While with Philadelphia, Speyer was a member of an organization that won six division titles and one conference championship. Spever got his start with the Eagles as a training camp intern in 2001 and worked as a pro personnel intern in 2002.

A native of Spring, Texas, Speyer played collegiately at Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho), before serving a twoyear LDS mission in Pocatello. Idaho. Spever returned to Ricks for one semester before transferring to the University of Utah and earning his undergraduate degree in business management. He also earned a MBA and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

Speyer and his wife, Lynette, have two sons, Braden and Kahler, and a daughter, Hailey.

Donovan Cotton enters his third season with the Buccaneers and his second as an area scout, after spending the 2014 season as a scouting assistant.

In Cotton's current role, he is responsible for evaluating colleges in the Southwest portion of the country. As a scouting assistant. Cotton assisted in player evaluations, organizing and executing free agent workouts and helping in draft preparations.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Cotton worked as a player personnel scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks in 2013, tracking depth charts, completing player reports and monitoring the waiver wire, among other duties. He got his start in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 2011, working as a training camp scouting intern.

Cotton played football collegiately at Norfolk State and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Entrepreneurship in 2011. He is single and resides in Tampa.

Andre Forde enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers as an area scout.

Prior to his time with the Buccaneers, Forde served as varsity wide receivers coach for Coral Glades (Fla.) High School, and, after that, was owner of Men of Valor Football and Speed Training, which provided individualized football training with the focus on speed and football development.

Forde graduated with a B.A. in sociology from the University of Buffalo in New York in 2003. He was a fouryear letterman at wide receiver and kick returner at the University of Buffalo, where he was a MAC Scholar Athlete every season. Forde played wide receiver for the Tulsa Talons of the AFL in 2006 and 2007, and spent time in the NFL with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts as well as the Amsterdam Admirals with NFL

Forde and his wife, Patrice, reside in South Florida with their three children: Hannah, Jeremiah and Isaiah.

Tony Hardie enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers as an area scout.

Hardie began with the Buccaneers working as the team's combine scout covering the Southeast region for National Football Scouting, before scouting the Mountain West and Mid-Atlantic regions of the United States.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hardie worked on the football staffs at Northwestern University (2010-11) and at the University of Chicago (2007-09).

Hardie served as the director of defensive quality control and defensive quality control/player personnel assistant with the Wildcats and was the cornerback coach and video coordinator on the Chicago staff. In 2010, he helped guide Northwestern to an appearance in the 2011 TicketCity Bowl.

Hardie graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Business in finance in 2007. He is single and resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, Brian Hudspeth enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers as a college scout, and his sixth as an area scout. He is currently responsible for the Southeastern region.

In his 16th NFL season overall, Hudspeth spent two years with Tampa Bay working as a national scout (2012-13), where he was responsible for scouting the entire country with an emphasis on the southern region.

In his first three seasons with the team, Hudspeth was responsible for scouting a portion of the southern United States, including Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas and selected schools in Arkansas and Tennessee.

Hudspeth spent five seasons (2004-08) with the Houston Texans prior to joining the Buccaneers. He served as a college scout from 2006-08, covering the Southeast and Southwest regions while cross checking the Mid-Atlantic. Prior to his appointment to that position, he served as a pro and college scouting assistant for Houston from 2004-05. Hudspeth joined the Texans after working for the Atlanta Falcons in player personnel from 2001-04. He filled various roles for the Falcons, including player personnel/football systems analyst in 2003-04, scouting assistant in 2002 and scouting intern in 2001.

Before joining the NFL, Hudspeth served on the football operations staff at the University of Tennessee from 1998-2001. He was a graduate assistant on the 1998 Volunteers staff that won the first-ever BCS National Championship, 1998 SEC Championship and 1999 Fiesta Bowl with a perfect 13-0 record. As a member of the Volunteers. Hudspeth was also a part of the 2000 Fiesta Bowl and 2001 Cotton Bowl. Hudspeth arrived at Tennessee after spending the 1996-97 seasons as a intern assistant coach at Petal (Mississippi) High School.

Hudspeth earned his Masters of Science degree from the University of Tennessee in 1999 and Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1997. The New Albany, Mississippi native is single and resides in Tampa.

Tony Kinkela enters his eighth season overall with the Buccaneers and his sixth as an area scout. Kinkela originally joined Tampa Bay as a combine scout, focusing on the NFL combine and working with the NFL in selecting invitees to the annual event.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent three seasons as the Director of Football Operations for the Tulane Green Wave from 2006-08.

During the 2004 and 2005 campaigns, Kinkela was the assistant director of football operations at Washington State. He also served as the assistant to the recruiting coordinator during the same period, coordinating on campus official and unofficial visits and oversaw the recruiting film system. As a member of the Cougars' staff, Kinkela was a part of Washington State's 2003 Rose Bowl and Holiday Bowl teams, and the 2001 Sun Bowl squad.

As a student at WSU, Kinkela served as a student assistant for the football team from 2001-04, and was a student representative for the NCAA Peer Review Board from 2001-02. A native of Graham, Washington, he received his bachelor's degree in sport management in 2004 and his master's degree in education administration in 2011 from Washington State. Kinkela resides in Bonney Lake, Washington with his wife, Merilee, son Koen and daughter Kenley.

Pat Perles enters his third season with Tampa Bay in 2016, working as a player personnel scout.

In his current capacity, Perles scouts select prospects across the United States.

Perles spent the 2013 season as the offensive line coach at Syracuse University. Prior to his time with the Orange, he spent three seasons working with the Kansas City Chiefs, as defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach (2009) and assistant offensive line coach (2010-11).

Before joining the Chiefs, Perles spent nine seasons in the collegiate ranks, working for North Dakota State (2003-08) and Michigan State (2000-02), his alma mater. Perles worked in the Canadian Football League for six seasons, coaching the offensive line for three teams: the Saskatchewan Roughriders (1994-96), the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1997) and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (1998-99), winning a Grey Cup title in his final year with Hamilton.

Perles began his coaching career at the University of Toledo, where he tutored the defensive line for three seasons (1989-91), before joining the Los Angeles Rams as a defensive assistant for two years (1992-93).

A Detroit native, Perles is the son of George Perles, who served 12 seasons as the head coach at Michigan State (1983-94). Pat played for his father from 1983-86. He and his wife, Karen, have three children: Hannah, Joseph and Julia.

Spencer Dille enters his fifth season with the Buccaneers in 2016 as director of football technology.

Dille is responsible for the development and maintenance of all football-related software and technology. He works closely with the front office, scouting department, trainers and coaching staff in the implementation of the latest technology and football-related applications. Additionally, Dille serves as a liaison between the information technology department and football operations, helping to troubleshoot a variety of technological issues on a continual basis.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent seven years (2004-11) with COMANCO Environmental Corporation, managing and developing their operational technology. From 2011-12, he worked with Kobie Marketing, developing their loyalty management software platform. Dille received both his Bachelors of Computer Engineering and Masters of Computer Science degrees from the University of Minnesota.

Dille resides in Lithia with his wife, Deborah, their three children, Amelia, Erik and Josephine.

Andres Trescastro enters his 19th season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and his 18th as the Director of Security. Trescastro handles all of the team's security investigation, working hand-in-hand with all local law enforcement agencies, for the protection and safety of coaches, players and ownership group at the main offices, on the road and at all events.

Trescastro's current responsibilities with the team include providing security for the entire coaching staff and all players, assisting TSA officials in securing buses and charter flights, organizing police escorts and safeguarding hotel facilities while on the road and during training camp.

A veteran security director with more than 32 years of experience, Trescastro is a graduate of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, as well as the Tampa Police Academy and Hillsborough County Sheriff Reserve Force. Trescastro also owns extensive training in field investigation and advanced surveillance/ advance protocol and has led high-level security teams for several Presidential visits to the Tampa area, as well as visits from the Royal Family. He was also the Security Director for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Super Bowl XXXVII Championship team.

Trescastro has worked to make Raymond James Stadium one of the safest venues in the NFL. He instituted the first protocol for TSA screening at team facilities prior to away game travel in 2000 and brought that same process, which is now used league-wide, to Raymond James Stadium, becoming the first NFL stadium to use it

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Trescastro worked at Beneficial Savings and Loan Corporation from 1983-97.

A native of Cuba, Trescastro currently resides in South Tampa. He has three children: daughter Elena, who is attending Florida State; son, Christian who recently graduated from Plant High School; and daughter, Danae currently attending Plant High School.

Duke Preston enters his second season as the director of player engagement, after joining the Buccaneers prior to the 2015 season.

As director of player development, Preston focuses on the personal and professional growth of players through guidance and support, with a focus in five core areas: career development, career transition assistance, continuing education, financial education and player assistance services.

Preston came to Tampa Bay from the University of Notre Dame, where he worked as the football team's Director of Player Development (April 2014-February 2015), following time spent as Director of Student-Athlete Welfare & Development (January 2013-April 2014). Prior to joining Notre Dame, Preston worked as an Area Director/Program Spokesman for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (July 2010-January 2013).

Preston – a former offensive lineman – played collegiately at the University of Illinois, before being drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In a four-year NFL career, Preston played in 59 games with 20 starts, spending time with the Bills, the Green Bay Packers and the Dallas Cowboys. While at Illinois, Preston earned a bachelor's degree in speech communication and began work on a master's degree in educational policy studies. Following his playing career, Preston earned a master's degree in Christian education from the Dallas Theological Seminary.

Bobby Slater enters his third season with the Buccaneers in 2016 working as the team's head athletic trainer.

Slater joined Tampa Bay after 15 years with the Chicago Bears, finishing his time there as the team's assistant head athletic trainer/director of rehabilitation. Slater began his career with Chicago in 1999 as an assistant athletic trainer, before being promoted to director of rehabilitation in 2002. Slater held that position for 10 years before adding assistant head athletic trainer to his title in 2012.

Slater began his career in the NFL with the Bears as a training camp intern in 1994, serving in the same capacity with the Miami Dolphins in 1995 and again with Chicago in 1998.

Before joining the Bears full-time, Slater worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1997-99 at Mississippi State University. He was also an athletic trainer at Lee Memorial Hospital (1997) and A. Kagan Orthopedics in Ft. Myers, Florida (1995-97).

Slater received a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida Southern College and a Master of Science degree from Mississippi State. Slater and his wife, Bridget, have three daughters - Savannah, Natalee, and Brooke and a son, Rvan.

Kevin Luhrs enters his seventh season as the team sports dietitian with the Buccaneers in 2016.

As a Registered and Licensed Dietitian, along with Strength and Conditioning Specialist Certification, his duties include the coordination of all meals and snacks for all players. In addition, Luhrs instructs players how and what to eat based on their individual goals and nutritional needs. He is heavily involved in player rehydration and weight management programs, along with recovery strategies.

His secondary duties involve being an assistant strength and conditioning coach under the direction of Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Dave Kennedy.

Luhrs worked as a volunteer nutritionist at the University of Nebraska in 2009 where he assisted the director of sports nutrition with various tasks that included body composition, weekly news blogs and nutrient analysis projects.

Luhrs was a defensive lineman for the University of Nebraska from 2003-07, during which time he was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll eight times. Luhrs also served as a studentcoach for the Cornhuskers in 2007. He graduated with a degree in Education and Human Sciences with a concentration in Nutritional Science and Dietetics in December 2007.

Luhrs was born on September 29, 1984, in Omaha, Nebraska, and currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Jacqueline.

Berlin joins the Buccaneers after spending the past two seasons as the Director of Equipment Operations for Michigan (2014-15), overseeing equipment operations for all 31 athletic teams and directing seven full-time equipment managers.

Prior to joining the Wolverines, Berlin spent 13 years with the Washington Redskins (2001-13), serving as the head equipment manager for the team, overseeing all aspects of the equipment and locker rooms at Redskins Park and FedEx Field.

Before entering the NFL, Berlin spent nine years working at the collegiate level, beginning his career as head equipment manager with Utah State (1992-93). He also worked at Colorado State (1994-98), Missouri (1998-99) and Louisville (2000).

A native of Marshall, Missouri, Berlin earned a bachelor's degree in educational studies and sports management from Missouri in 1989 and later earned a master's of education in sports management in 1993. He and his wife, Molly, have three children – daughters Hannah and Miranda and son Brady.

Dave Levy begins his 29th season as the team's video director in 2016. Levy's contributions helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. He has also been a part of the Buccaneers three NFC South division titles and four total division titles during his tenure.

Levy was instrumental in the development and layout of the Buccaneers' new training facility at One Buccaneer Place, which opened in 2006. His insight helped create one of the most technologically advanced sports training facilities in the world, providing the coaches and personnel department with a distinct advantage.

His responsibilities include all recording, editing and production for the team. He also manages Tampa Bay's digital game film library. In preparation for each season's NFL Draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining digital game footage on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Buccaneers after previously serving as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, Levy went to high school in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife Tracy live in New Tampa. They have six children: Andrew, Garrett, Bryce, Stacy, Casey and Katie.

Chris Bryan enters his 17th season with the Buccaneers in 2016 and 11th as assistant video director. He assists video director Dave Levy in the shooting and editing of games and practices, while also editing and producing various other teaching and instructional videos for the coaching staff.

In 2002, Bryan was part of a Buccaneers staff that claimed a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders. During his time with the club, Bryan has been a part of three NFC South division titles.

Bryan, a native of St. Petersburg, spent his first six seasons with the Buccaneers as a video assistant from 2000-05. He is single and resides in St. Petersburg.

- x Recorded first career rushing touchdown at New Orleans (12/28/2014) and first career receiving touchdown at Houston (9/27/2015).
- x With 561 receiving yards in 2015, marks the fourthmost such yards by a running back in a single season in franchise history.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Appeared in all 16 games on the season.
- x In the season opener vs. Tennessee (9/13), finished with five rushes for 12 yards and two catches for 23 yards.
- x At New Orleans (9/20), recorded eight rushes for 38 yards and three receptions for 14 yards.

- x At Houston (9/27), recorded six rushes for 11 yards and two receptions for 41 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown reception, the first touchdown reception of his career.
- x Against Carolina (10/4), rushed six times for 23 yards and caught three passes for 30 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown reception.
- With back-to-back touchdown receptions at Houston (9/27) and vs. Carolina (10/4), becomes the first Buccaneers running back to catch touchdowns in consecutive games since 1991, and only the fourth in team history to do so.
- x Against Jacksonville (10/11), finished the day with a career-high 136 all-purpose yards (85 receiving, 51 rushing), while leading the team in receiving.
- x Recorded a career-long reception vs. Jacksonville (10/11), with a 56-yard catch on third-and-15 which led to a Buccaneers field goal.
- X At Washington (10/25), finished with 10 carries for 49 yards and two receptions for 17 yards.
- x At Atlanta (11/1), recorded 22 yards on six rushing attempts and caught three passes for 24 yards.

- x Against New York Giants (11/8), led the team in rushing, recording a career-high 78 yards on eight attempts, including a career-long 59-yard run that also marked the longest rush by a Buccaneers player since Doug Martin last season (63 yards, vs. Carolina, 12/14/14).
- X His 59-yard rush vs. New York Giants (11/8) helped set up a 10-yard touchdown run by QB Jameis Winston.
- x Against Dallas (11/15), finished with five rushes for 18 yards and two receptions for 13 yards.
- x At Philadelphia (11/22), recorded 10 rushes for 43 yards and three receptions for 26 yards, including a 14-yard receiving touchdown.

- x Set then-career highs for single-game passing yards (279), completion percentage (72.4) and passer rating (128.1) at Washington, while his passing

- yards tied for fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie and his passer rating set the third-best mark by a rookie in team history.
- x At Atlanta (11/1), finished the day going 16-of-29 for 177 yards with one touchdown, as well as rushing three times for 24 yards and one touchdown, including a career-long 21-yard scramble in third quarter that set up his four-yard rushing touchdown three plays later.
- x Led first career game-winning drive at Atlanta (11/1), beating the Falcons in overtime after leading the team on a 15-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a 31-yard field goal for the 23-20 lead, becoming only the third rookie quarterback in team history to lead the team to an overtime victory (also: Josh Freeman, at New Orleans, 12/27/09; Steve Young, vs. Detroit, 11/24/85).
- × With second career rushing touchdown at Atlanta (11/1), leads Buccaneers rookie quarterbacks for the most rushing touchdowns in franchise history.
- × Against New York Giants (11/8), went 19-of-36 for 247 yards while throwing no interceptions and recording three rushes for 24 yards, including a 10yard scramble into the end zone for his third rushing touchdown of the season.
- X Against Dallas (11/15), completed 22-of-39 passes for 264 yards with two interceptions, as well as recording three rushes for three yards, including a one-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter to win the game.
- x His game-winning drive against Dallas (11/15) marked his first career fourth-quarter comeback and the team's first this season.
- x Ended the day at Philadelphia (11/22) going 19of-29 for 246 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions, including four touchdown passes in the first half, marking the most in a first half in team history and tied for the most in a first half in the NFL this season.
- x His five passing touchdowns at Philadelphia (11/22) are tied for the most in a single game by a rookie since the 1970 NFL merger and also tie the franchise single-game record.
- x His performance at Philadelphia (11/22) aided the Buccaneers in recording 521 yards of total offense (283 rushing, 238 passing), the second-most in team history, and his five touchdown passes contributed to Tampa Bay's 45 points, the third-most scored in a single game in franchise history.
- Winston's performance, along with RB Doug Martin's 235 rushing yards, marked the first time in NFL history that a road team has had a player throw for 5+ touchdowns and another player rush for 200+ yards.
- x At Indianapolis (11/29), finished going 20-of-36 for 245 yards with one touchdown and one interception,

- and established a new franchise record for passing yards by a rookie, with 2,650 on the season.
- x Against Atlanta (12/6), completed 18-of-27 passes for 227 yards with one touchdown and one interception, as well as recording five rushes, which included a five-yard rushing touchdown and a 20yard rush to convert on third-and-19 on what would be the game-winning drive.
- X Led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive to win the game against Atlanta (12/6), marking the third game-winning drive of his career and his second career fourth-quarter comeback drive. He is also one of only nine quarterbacks this season to direct at least three game-winning drives, and is the only rookie to do so, per data compiled by Pro Football Reference.
- X Against New Orleans (12/13), went 18-of-32 for 182 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) — The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) — C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) — DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) — The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's team playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) — As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Differ, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) — After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) — Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) — For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including preseason) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) — Raymond James Stadium, already known as "The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) — The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Duan (115)

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) — Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) — Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/T) — A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) — Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) — Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) — Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) — Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) — Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) — Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) — Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) — The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) — Four Buccaneers — FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) — DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon won the trophy in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12.5 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) — Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) — Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) — The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players — FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a OB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) — The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) — The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) — Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears to just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) — The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) — DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) — Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a careerhigh 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FC prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) — S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18)

— RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

CHRISTENSEN PROMOTED TO OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (1/26)

 Quarterbacks coach Clyde Christensen is promoted to offensive coordinator. Christensen coached Tampa Bay's quarterbacks in 1999 and 2000 after tutoring the tight ends for his first three years from 1996-98.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) — Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL

(2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) — Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson, Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) — Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) — John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) — Due to the terrorist attacks on America on September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) — Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) — For the second time in two years, the Buc Canneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) — During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) — In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) — New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) — The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) — Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory — For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for fouchdowns in a single season.

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6)

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) — In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defensed.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) - Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY

(12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) — LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) — Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) — Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franshise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) - The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39. Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' topranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) — Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) — Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) — Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) — The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) — The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) — Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) — Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) — The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) — Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9)

- The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) - The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) - The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 136,320 square foot state-ofthe-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) - The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) - Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) - Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) - In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 33 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 7,900-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) — Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) — With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) — In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) — After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior, against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) — With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) — For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) — Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) — For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defensed to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection — both team records.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24)

— A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. CB Ronde Barber plays in his 225th career game, all with the Buccaneers, surpassing former LB Derrick Brooks (224) for the most in team history.

BARTH COMPLETES MOST ACCURATE SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY (1/1) – K Connor Barth converts 26-of-28 field goals on the season, for a franchise-record 92.9 percent. That rate ranked second in the NFL. In addition, Barth was successful on all 23 of his PATs.

KOENEN MAKES MAJOR IMPACT IN FIRST YEAR (1/1) — After signing with the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent, P Michael Koenen compiled arguably the best punting season in franchise history. Koenen set the club record for net average (40.3) by 2.5 yards over the previous mark, while his 45.1-gross average was the second-highest total in club annals. Koenen also set team single-game record for highest gross average (52.2, min. 4) in his first contest as Buccaneer on September 11, against Detroit.

FOSTER LEADS ALL NFL ROOKIES IN TACKLES (1/1) — LB Mason Foster leads all NFL rookies in tackles. His 126 stops also led the team and were the second-most in franchise history for a rookie. Foster, who started the final 15 games at middle linebacker, also recorded four tackles for loss, two sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

MORRIS DISMISSED (1/2) — The Buccaneers announce the dismissal of head coach Raheem Morris. Morris coached the team for three seasons, tallying a 17-31 record.

SCHIANO HIRED AS HEAD COACH (1/26) — The Buccaneers announce former Rutgers head coach Greg Schiano as the ninth coach in franchise history. In 12 years at Rutgers, Schiano compiled a 68-67 record, leading the team to six bowl game appearances.

BARBER MAKES 200TH CONSECUTIVE START (9/9) — CB Ronde Barber made his 200th consecutive start at cornerback in the season opener against the Carolina Panthers, extending his streak for the most consecutive games started by a cornerback.

BARBER SCORES AGAIN (10/14) — DB Ronde Barber returned an interception 78 yards in a 38-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs, the 45th interception of his career and the eighth he has returned for a score. He has 14 career return touchdowns (eight from interceptions, four from fumble recoveries, one from punt return, one from punt block), the fourth-most return touchdowns in NFL history.

GRUBER ENTERS RING OF HONOR (12/4) — At halftime against the Kansas City Chiefs, Paul Gruber was inducted into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. Gruber earned numerous awards during his 12-year career with the Buccaneers, including several All-Pro selections and distinction as a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

BARBER SETS BUCCANEERS RECORD FOR GAMES STARTED (10/21)

– DB Ronde Barber recorded his 222nd career start against New Orleans, passing former Buccaneers LB Derrick Brooks (221 starts from 1995-08) for the most starts in team history.

JACKSON SETS FRANCHISE RECORD FOR RECEIVING YARDS (10/21)

- WR Vincent Jackson set a team record and career-high with 216 receiving yards, including a career long 95-yard reception.

MARTIN'S RECORD-BREAKING DAY (11/4) — RB Doug Martin had the best game a Buccaneers running back has ever had in a 42-32 victory at Oakland, recording 251 rushing yards on only 25 carries (10.1 avg.) and four rushing touchdowns. His 251 rushing yards were the tenth-most in NFL history, and he became only the second player in league history to record 250+ rushing yards and four touchdowns in the same game.

BARBER PASSES OTTO (12/2) – DB Ronde Barber passed Hall of Fame C Jim Otto for the seventh-most consecutive starts in NFL history, with his 210th consecutive start.

MCCOY SELECTED TO FIRST PRO BOWL (12/26) – DT Gerald McCoy was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2013 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It was the first time in McCoy's career that he has been honored

BARBER TIES PAGE (12/30) – DB Ronde Barber ties Hall of Fame DE Alan Page for the sixth-most consecutive starts in NFL history, with his 215th consecutive start.

FREEMAN SETS RECORDS (12/30) — Having set the franchise record for passing yards in a single season against the Rams (12/23), QB Josh Freeman became the first Buccaneer to throw for 4,000 yards in a season against Atlanta. He also set the single-season Buccaneer mark for touchdown passes in a season (27) and career touchdown passes (78).

MARTIN'S ROOKIE MARKS (12/30) — RB Doug Martin capped off a brilliant rookie season, recording the second-most scrimmage yards (1,926), rushing yards (1,454) touchdowns (12), and rushing touchdowns (11) in franchise history, all of which were rookie records.

JACKSON SELECTED TO THIRD PRO BOWL (1/15) — WR Vincent Jackson was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2013 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It was the third time that Jackson was selected to the all-star game, and his first with the Buccaneers.

MARTIN SELECTED TO FIRST PRO BOWL (12/26) — RB Doug Martin was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2013 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Martin became the first Buccaneers rookie to go to the event since Clifton Smith in 2008.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS CB REVIS (4/21) — The Bucs trade a first round pick (13th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft and a conditional draft pick in the 2014 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for three-time All-Pro CB Darrelle Revis. A four-time Pro Bowl selection and the 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year, Revis is widely considered one of the best cornerbacks in the NFL.

SAPP INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (8/4) – DT Warren Sapp joins DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Buccaneers in the NFL Hall of Fame. Sapp is inducted by his daughter, Mercedes.

SAPP ENTERS RING OF HONOR; HAS NUMBER RETIRED (12/4)

 After his Hall of Fame induction in August, Sapp was chosen for the Buccaneers Ring of Honor at halftime of a Monday Night Football contest against Miami. Sapp's No. 99 was also officially retired by the team. MCCOY & REVIS SELECTED TO PRO BOWL (12/26) — DT Gerald McCoy and CB Darrelle Revis were selected to play in the 2014 Pro Bowl. McCoy earns the honors for the second time in his career, becoming only the fourth Buccaneers defensive lineman to earn multiple Pro Bowl berths. It is Revis' fifth career Pro Bowl selection and his first with the Buccaneers.

SCHIANO, DOMINIK DISMISSED (12/30) — The Buccaneers announce the dismissal of head coach Greg Schiano and general manager Mark Dominik. Schiano coached the team for two seasons, tallying a 11-21 record.

SMITH NAMED HEAD COACH (1/2) — Former Chicago Bears head coach Lovie Smith is named as the 10th head coach in Buccaneers history. Smith spent nine seasons as the head coach of the Bears (2004-12). The 2005 Associated Press Coach of the Year, Smith amassed a record of 81-63 with Chicago, earning three division titles, two NFC Championship game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XLI.

MCCOY AND DAVID NAMED FIRST-TEAM ALL-PRO (1/3) — Defensive tackle Gerald McCoy and linebacker Lavonte David each earn first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors, becoming the first Buccaneers teammates to earn the distinction since 2005. David joins Hardy Nickerson and Derrick Brooks as the only linebackers in team history to be selevted, while McCoy is the team's fourth defensive lineman to be honored (Simeon Rice, Warren Sapp and Lee Roy Selmon).

LICHT NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (1/21) — The Buccaneers hire Jason Licht as the fifth general manager in franchise history. In his career, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed nine playoff appearances, eight division championship, four conference championships and one Super Bowl title.

BUCCANEERS AND NIKE UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORM DESIGN

(3/3) — As part of a unique and innovative social media rollout, the Buccaneers debut their new NFL Nike Elite 51 Uniform designs, incorporating many of the unique historical aspects of the Tampa Bay area and featuring a refreshed color scheme honoring the franchise's past and present, while confidently positioning the team for the future.

CONCESSIONS RENOVATIONS AT RAYMOND JAMES (5/5) — The Buccaneers and Aramark, the team's food and beverage and retail services partner, announce plans for a comprehensive overhaul of the 14 main concourse concession locations and the construction of four additional beverage stands at Raymond James Stadium.

FIRST-EVER 'ALL-OFFENSE' DRAFT BY THE BUCCANEERS (5/10)

— Beginning with their selection of wide receiver Mike Evans with the seventh overall pick, the Buccaneers had their first-ever draft of exclusively offensive players. Tampa Bay used all six of its picks in the 2014 NFL Draft to select players on the offensive side of the ball: wide receiver Mike Evans (first round, seventh overall), tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins (second round, 38th overall), running back Charles Sims (third round, 69th overall), guard Kadeem Edwards (fifth round, 143rd overall), tackle Kevin Pamphile (fifth round, 149th overall) and wide receiver Robert Herron (sixth round, 185th overall).

BUCCANEERS OWNER MALCOLM GLAZER PASSES AWAY (5/28) — Tampa Bay Buccaneers owner Malcolm Glazer passes away at age 85. A dynamic business leader, Glazer helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise and one respected league-wide. Since being purchased by Glazer in 1995, the Buccaneers franchise has earned seven playoff berths, five playoff wins, and captured its first Super Bowl championship in 2002.

BROOKS INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (8/2) — LB Derrick Brooks joins former teammate DT Warren Sapp and DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Buccaneers in the NFL Hall of Fame. Brooks, the franchise's all-time leading tackler, is inducted by his son, Decalon.

BROOKS ENTERS RING OF HONOR; HAS NUMBER RETIRED

(9/14) - Just as they did in the 1995, Derrick Brooks followed his teammate Warren Sapp, earninig first-ballot Hall of Fame selection, Buccaneers Ring of Honor induction and the retirement of his number - for Brooks, the iconic "double nickel," No. 55.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17 DECEMBER 29, 1979

TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA - The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt, Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt. Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes fourth-down Jaworski's incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0 JANUARY 6, 1980

TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA - In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-vard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE

Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourthdown throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

DALLAS - The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on thirdand-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-vard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones, James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a threeyard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17 January 9, 1983

TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS - For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-vard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

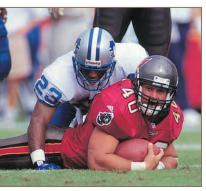

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10 DECEMBER 28, 1997

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA - In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-vard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one, Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies-RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 vards-the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nineyard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7 JANUARY 4, 1998 LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY - The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-vard. seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-vard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes. Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals. the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Fayre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-vard gain, Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13 JANUARY 15, 2000

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA - The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later. DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6 JANUARY 23, 2000 TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS - Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner, But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3 DECEMBER 31, 2000

VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA - Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

2001 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 JANUARY 12, 2002

VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA - Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-vard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes, Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards. added 57 yards rushing.

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6 JANUARY 12, 2003

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA - Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-vard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA - Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defensed, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion-the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-vard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-vard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter, Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21 JANUARY 26, 2003

SAN DIEGO - Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' topranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was shortlived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10 January 7, 2006

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA - Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-vard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14 JANUARY 6, 2008 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA - Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

In the long-established

tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl YYYVII

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay
Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SIDELINES

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice—and the team's first-ever draft selection—in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

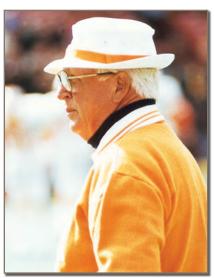

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977, He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John. Rich. Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

JIMMIE GILES

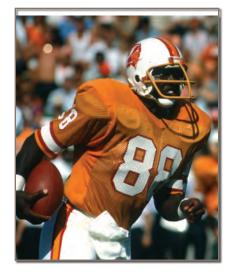

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to ranks highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

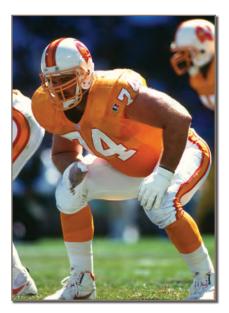

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

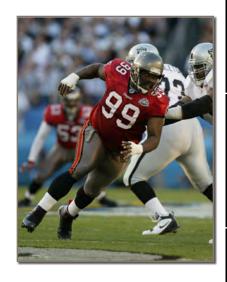

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon and becoming the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defensed, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defensed, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defensed, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries, Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School: a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

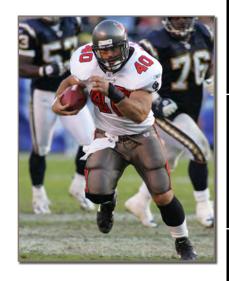

A six-time Pro Bowl selection - a franchise record for an offensive player - and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alsott's bruising running style and not-to-bedenied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason fore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children

Alstott currently serves as the head football coach at Northside Christian School in St. Petersburg, Florida.

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

JOHN LYNCH

As one of the most feared safeties of his generation and one of the most impactful figures in Buccaneers history, it was only a matter of time before John Lynch was enshrined in the team's Ring of Honor. Indeed, the elite defender was granted the honor in 2016, and will be formally inducted in a halftime ceremony on November 3, as Tampa Bay faces the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday Night Football.

Lynch came to the Buccaneers as third-round selection (82nd overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft and, upon arriving in Tampa Bay, he joined a team in the midst of some mighty struggles. Despite four consecutive losing seasons to start his career, Lynch, along with teammates and fellow Ring of Honor members Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, helped form the foundation that would turn the franchise around.

Lynch dedicated himself to his craft, and his hard work paid off. The defensive back played 15 seasons in the NFL, starting 191 of 224 games for Tampa Bay (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He finished his career with 1,277 tackles, 100 passes defensed, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, 13.0 sacks and eight fumble recoveries. He also started all 1 postseason contests in which he appeared, tallying 71 tackles, 12 passes defensed and two interceptions.

A captain on the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch's name is still prominent in the team's record book. He ranks fifth in games played (164), sixth in games started (132), fifth in tackles (973) and sixth in interceptions (23). He was selected to five Pro Bowls as a Buccaneer and four as a Bronco, and his nine total appearances in the all-star game are tied for second-most in league history amongst career safeties.

Renowned for his hard-hitting style and fearless demeanor, Lynch set the standard for the safety play in Tampa Bay.

Beyond simply his raw numbers, Lynch was consistently recognized as one of the most cerebral players on the field at any given time. Monte Kiffin nicknamed Lynch "The Closer," after noting the defensive back's penchant for late-game heroics – including an interception that sparked a comeback in the 1999 NFC Divisional Playoff Game against Washington and the pick that sealed Tampa Bay's 38-35 win over St. Louis in a 2000 Monday Night Football contest.

In fact, of his 26 career interceptions, 14 were secured in the fourth quarter and 11 of the 14 came when his team was either up or down by seven points or less. Lynch's talent for securing takeaways at such crucial moments ensured that 21 of his 26 picks helped his team win games.

Lynch made an impact off the field as well. He and his wife Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation in 2000, with a mission to develop quality young leaders through its community initiatives, including the Star of the Month, Lynch Family Legacy Scholarships, Salute the Stars and Lynch's Holiday Party. During his career, Lynch received numerous accolades for his work outside the game, being named a three-time Buccaneers Man of the Year, earning the Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2006 and the Bart Starr award in 2005, being selected by teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2001 and twice finishing as a finalist for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, along with numerous other achievements.

Lynch currently serves as a color commentator for the NFL on FOX and has been a semifinalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame for three consecutive years.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

Raymond James Stadium opened on September 20, 1998 — christened with a Buccaneers victory over the Chicago Bears. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and production, Raymond James Stadium helped usher in a new era of stadium construction and was hailed as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL" upon its opening. Since that time, the stadium has reigned as one of the top facilities in the league.

In 2015, the Buccaneers and the Tampa Sports Authority reached an agreement to bring about a comprehensive renovation of Raymond James Stadium. The multi-stage renovation plan was approved by Hillsborough County, the City of Tampa and the TSA Board of Directors and construction on stage one projects began in January 2016.

The centerpiece of the construction's first phase is the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards which will provide a total video display area of 28,416 feet — the third-largest in the NFL. The project will also include a new, state-of-the-art sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites.

The second phase of renovations — completed by the beginning of the 2017 football season — will include an extensive renovation of the east and west club lounges, expansions of the general concourses, construction of a team store and other general fan enhancements.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers are dedicated to ensuring an exceptionalfa fan experience each and every game day and hope that you enjoy Raymond James Stadium.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

GENERAL SEATING: After 22 years of watching Buccaneers football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19-21" wide and with 32-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds more than 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

CLUB SEATS: Raymond James Stadium also has over 10,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneers games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

HALL OF FAME CLUB: New for 2016, the Hall of Fame Club is an all-new, premium seating concept featuring all-inclusive food and non-alcoholic drink options, air conditioned comfort and one of the best views of action on the field. Membership in the Hall of Fame Club provides VIP access to at least 20 events at a more affordable cost. Members of the Ring of Honor Club also have the option to purchase their seats for the 2017 College Football National Championship Game!

Membership in the Ring of Honor Club includes access to your seats for 10 Buccaneers home games, USF home football games, the Outback Bowl, Monster Jam, Concerts and other special events at Raymond James Stadium.

The new concept - which will be located on the suite level - is limited to 240 seats and features an expansive 9,500 square-foot, open-floor design, including prime food and drink options as well as a full liquor bar for purchase. The area is part of the $100-million renovation to Raymond James Stadium that is currently underway. Hall of Fame Club access will be completed for the upcoming 2016 season.

LUXURY SUITES: A total of 166 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting in which to watch a Buccaneers game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

CONCESSIONS: Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. In 2014, the team completed a large-scale $7 million renovation of its main concourse concessions, adding new, exciting options for fans to enjoy. A wide variety of options are available, with all-new menus to reflect the variety of Tampa Bay's culinary scene.

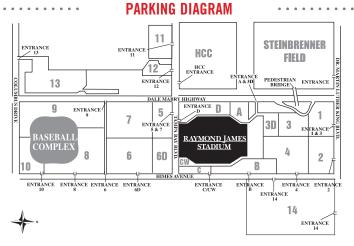

RESTROOMS/SERVICES: Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneers fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level

MEDIA FACILITIES: The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. The dining area features a multiple-screen video wall, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

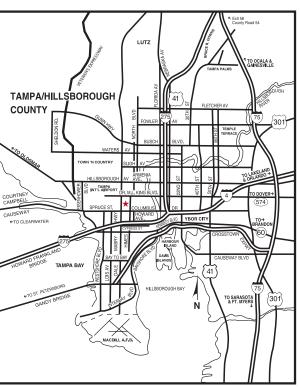

ESCALATORS: An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of three escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneers fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

TRAFFIC CONTROL: When visiting Raymond James Stadium, you can be assured that travel will be as timeefficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers is directed to ease traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 16 cameras constantly monitored by staff from TPD and City Traffic Engineering. They monitor all major intersections, traffic light cycles and newly installed cameras by F.D.O.T. that reach out beyond the immediate area. If problems arise, the flow of traffic can be instantly adjusted by adding time to stop lights or lane closures to avoid accidents

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the NFL.

In winter of 2015, a multi-stage renovation plan was approved, ensuring that the stadium will remain as on of the legaue's top facilities. The plan, which will be completed in two stages - during the 2016 and 2017 offseasons - includes the installation of new, state-of-the-art video boards, providing a total video display area of 28,416 feet; a new, advanced sound system; additional concessions upgrades; completely renovated luxury suites; overhauled designs for the East and West Club lounges; expansions to the general concourses; construction of a team store and more. The Buccaneers are dedicated to continuing to provide an incredible gameday experience for all fans who visit Raymond James Stadium.

Some of the stadium's most recognizable features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s vessel and arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew which is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy one of the most unique views in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

• Ship Length 103'
• Ship Weight 43 tons
• Ship Height 78'
• Bow Detail 9'x7'
• Ship Width 32'
• Swords 16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- . 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- . 64.000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE FAN DECK

The Miller Lite Fan Deck is an exclusive area in the southeast corner of Raymond James Stadium where a select number of fans can watch the game from an incredible and unique vantage point. All fans age 21 and older are eligible to win a ticket to this private oasis, where they are able to enjoy complimentary Miller products on the deck. Winner receive special pass to access the Fan Deck, as well as Buc Dollars for stadium goods. All winners must be 21 and older.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

In addition to Buccaneer Cove and the Miller Lite Fan Deck, Raymond James Stadium offers numerous attractions to fans that make the Buccaneers gameday experience unlike any other in professional sports. Some of the attractions include:

- VIDEO BOARDS AND SURROUND SOUND In 2016, the Buccaneers will introduce brand new video boards in the end zones and tower displays in each corner of the stadium. With a total display area of 28,416 square feet the third-largest in the NFL the stunning boards and additional state-of-the-art surround sound system will enhance the stadium viewing experience and bring fans closer to the action on the field than ever before.
- SOUTH PLAZA ACTIVIATION AREA Fans are encouraged to join the pregame party in the stadium's South Plaza, featuring a live band, contests and giveaways from Buccaneers Pewter Partners and Sponsors, and the Buccaneers Kids Zone for youth of all ages. The South Plaza festivities begin 3.5 hours before kickoff.
- UPDATED CONCESSIONS In 2014, all 14 main concourse concessions locations underwent a $7 million renovation. The revamped, state-of-the-art locations feature all-new food preparation equipment and an exciting new look, with new menus designed to reflect Tampa Bay's diverse culinary scene.
- CUSTOMER SERVICE The Buccaneers were ranked No. 1 in customer satisfaction among all NFL teams by JD Powers in 2012, 2013 and 2015 and are dedicated to delivering world-class service to all fans. Dozens of trained staff are posted around the stadium before, during and after each game. Quads A and C feature Guest and Member Relations Headquarters, staffed by employees ready to aid fans with any questions or issues.
- BUCSPARILLA The Buccaneers' Gasparilla float, manned by team mascot Captain Fear and his Krewe, parades through parking lots and tailgate areas around the stadium, distributing Buccaneers beads and other prizes to the crowd.
- BUCCANEER BATTLE FLAGS Each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's red zone, red flags that adorn the top of the stadium are raised while a 60-person crew waves red flags throughout the stadium as the Pirate Ship's cannons are fired.

ONE BUCGANEER PLACE

The Buccaneers make their home at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136.320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to

One Buc, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

Across the hall from the locker room is the players' lounge, which looks out onto the practice fields. The room is decorated with comfortable leather couches and chairs and features a large entertainment center, two custom Buccaneers pool tables, video arcade machines and more.

The lounge provides extra space for players during downtime, whether it's to grab a snack, play pool or video games with teammates, or even grab a quick nap.

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at One Buc is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where the head coach addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-byposition, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

One Buccaneer Place consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is One Buc's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defensed, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth s marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

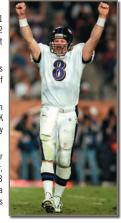

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defensed against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon

returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-vard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: The Story Behind the Stadium Name

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg — Raymond James Financial.

The company has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official wealth management provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments — and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full and holistic understanding of each client's situation and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James is a multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS TEAM UP TO HELP OTHERS

Back in 1962, Bob James founded Raymond James on the principle that putting others first — from our clients to our neighbors — was the right thing to do. His deep commitment to doing what's right remains a core part of the company today. His legacy is continued through the investment of time, money and talents into the communities we serve. It's so much more than tradition; it's a way of thanking those who've supported the firm from the start.

During the football season, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up for two charitable programs: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 17th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes funds to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $300,000 for local children's hospitals.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to "sack hunger" by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. Through the generosity and support of Tampa Bay area residents and Buccaneers fans, the Sack Hunger food drive has collected more than 140 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium, feeding thousands of in-need area residents. This year's annual Sack Hunger game-day food drive will be held November 13, at the Bucs vs. Bears game. Visit sackhunger.com to learn more.

RAYMOND JAMES SUPPORT OF THE ARTS

A deep appreciation for the arts permeates the culture at Raymond James and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 2,400 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com/art. Tours of the art displayed at Raymond James international headquarters can also be arranged.

In addition to sponsoring several art shows in the community each year, Raymond James is also a continuing sponsor of local theater and other performing arts venues in the Tampa Bay area. The company hopes its actions will help encourage others — corporations and individuals — to support not only live theater, but all forms of artistic expression.

RONDÉ BARBER

DAN LUCAS

WFLA

WFLA, News Channel 8, serves as the Buccaneers' official home for preseason football, an agreement that will run through 2017. In 2016, WFLA is producing and broadcasting three of Tampa Bay's four preseason games: on the road at Philadelphia and Jacksonville in Weeks 1 and 2, respectively, and at home versus Washington in Week 4. News Channel 8 will also produce and air pregame special prior to each preseason game and anchor Dan Lucas will host "Bucs Bonus," a half-hour program that will air Saturday nights at 7 p.m. during the NFL season.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his 13th season in the preseason broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers, who was born in Florida, began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Joining Myers as color analyst is Buccaneers legend Rondé Barber, who will provide Bucs fans with astute analysis gleaned from a storied 16-year NFL career with Tampa Bay. One of the most respected players in team history, Barber retired following the 2012 season and signed with FOX Sports soon after. 2016 marks Barber's fourth year in the broadcast booth. After the preseason, Barber will continue working with Myers as the pair call regular-season games for The NFL on FOX.

Barber, a five-time Pro Bowler and five-time AP All-Pro selection, entered the league as a third-round (66th overall) pick by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft. He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history. Barber was a key component of the Tampa Bay defense that ruled the league in the late 1990s and early 2000s, helping bring the Bay Area a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Dan Lucas, who serves as a sports anchor and reporter for WFLA, will serve as the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He is a Tampa native who graduated from Leto High School and went on to graduate from Florida State University. Prior to his work with WFLA, Lucas worked as weekend sports anchor at WJAC-TV in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, where he covered Penn State and all the Pittsburgh professional sports franchises.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

DAVE MOORE

T I RIV

iHeart Media's US 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network for the 13th year. US 103.5 will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. iHeart Media will also simulcast Buccaneers football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM/95.3 FM.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 28th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 28 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball since 1979.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 15-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award, as well as the winner of the 2013 National Football Foundation Chris Schenkel Award

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his 10th season as color analyst with the Buccaneers Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

T.J. Rives begins his 12th season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives is a radio and television veteran of the Tampa Bay area and nationally for the last 23 years. During the 2016 season, Rives will host the Dirk Koetter Radio Show on Monday nights. He graduated with a degree in broadcasting from the former Memphis State University.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action -- including pre-game, halftime and post-game -- are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

GHEBRLBADBRS

Since 1976, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have charmed the team's avid fans, performed to worldwide acclaim, and cheered the team to a Super Bowl Championship.

The 24 to 30 women that comprise the squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year to represent the team and include athletes, educators, professionals, students and mothers. These talented women are committed both to the team and the community, making a number of appearances for both corporate and non-profit events throughout their

In addition to their work within the Tampa Bay area, the Tampa Bay

Buccaneers Cheerleaders also serve as ambassadors for the organization throughout the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Canada, Egypt, Japan, Europe, Australia, California, Texas and Hawaii.

TARA BATTIATO

CHEERLEADING MANAGER

In 2016, Tara Battiato enters her third season directing the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders as the team's Cheerleading Manager, Battiato spent five seasons cheering with the Denver Broncos, serving as a team captain for four years and traveling to Hawaii as the team's 2013 Pro Bowl Representative.

Battiato also has professional dance experience working with the Houston Rockets, Boise State Main Line Dance Team, and Austin Ballet Company.

A native of Littleton, Colorado, Battiato graduated with honors from Boise State.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department at (813) 554-1311. Phone interviews should be arranged in advance and are subject to availability. Head Coach Dirk Koetter will address the media directly after practices and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with opposing team media. Koetter will also have a regularly scheduled day-after-game press conference. Please contact Buccaneers PR for details.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers will observe a weekly players' day off every Tuesday of regular game weeks. Open locker room periods for accredited media will be offered each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Times for the open locker room sessions are available by contacting the PR department.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. All practices are closed to the public. Regularly credentialed media, still photographers and videographers may attend approximately the first 30 minutes of practice. Reporters who are not regular members of the Buccaneers' media corps should contact the PR department to discuss practice attendance.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a freelance basis unless the request is made by an approved publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted via the Buccaneers' media site at http://media.buccaneers.com. Contact Kelly Schutz with any questions regarding credentials.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the media site. The team's weekly injury report and daily transcriptions can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. The media will call is staffed beginning four hours prior to kickoff. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Sandra Jones of CenturyLink (800-471-1139) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline.

NOTE: Unless previously arranged, no interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.

Glazer Children's Museum

In 2010, the Foundation helped create a new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders: the Glazer Children's Museum.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 along the waterfront in downtown Tampa. The 53,000 square-foot building is not a typical museum, but a place with activities, games and challenges that allows children to learn in an exciting, stimulating environment. The world-class facility has already hosted more than 1.2 million guests since opening in 2010 and been honored both locally and nationally for educational excellence and economic impact. In 2012, the Tampa Bay Business Journal named the Glazer Children's Museum as its Arts, Culture and Humanities "Nonprofit of the Year," while in 2016, Tripping.com listed it as one of the top 10 children's museums in the Nation.

A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers with a rich and ever-changing atmosphere for playful learning. Kids can enjoy more than 170 unique, interactive exhibits called 'Interactivities' throughout 12 differently-themed areas committed to education and imagination. Children can pretend to be airplane pilots, cruise ship captains, construction workers, fire fighters, doctors and more in a safe, engaging environment.

Having established impactful partnerships with schools, nonprofit organizations and civic leaders, the Glazer Children's Museum serves as an invaluable resource to the community. A main attraction in downtown Tampa and a destination for local residents, regional visitors and tourists, the Museum is in a class all its own. For hours of operation, directions and more information, visit www.GlazerMuseum.org.
